A Modern Bishop And The Scientists:
Head Of King's College To Retire: The Mollisons And Two Clever Doctors:
Lions In The Strand: Ranji's
Biography.

(Special Air-Mail Service)

London, Aug. 30.

THE BISHOP OF CARLISLE

When the British Association meets at Leicester the Bishop of Carlisle is to preach at the official service in the Cathedral.

He is among the most up-to-date of modern prelates, with a keen appreciation of all that science can do for the comfort and convenience of mankind.

He received something of a shock when he first took up residence in Ross Castle and asked: "What about the electric lighting?" He was told: "There isn't any, but there are fifty oil lamps in the lamp-room."

THE PROVOST OF KING'S

I hear that the Rev. A. E. Brooke, the Provost of King's College, Cambridge, is shortly retiring.

Canon Brooke, who is one of our most learned theologians, has never succumbed to the temptation to leave the paths of scholarship for the high ecclesiastical preferment which doubtless could have been his had he so desired.

His kindness of nature is only equalled by his modesty.

I remember him once remarking somewhat diffidently that he considered his nephew, Rupert Brooke, had subsequently "justified the Fellowship" which King's gave him on his earlier poetic achievements.

HIS SUCCESSOR?

The Provost of King's—unlike the Master of Trinity, who is appointed by the Crown—is elected by the Fellows.

Canon Brooke's most likely successor, I am told, is the present Vice-Provost, Mr. J. T. Sheppard.

Mr. Sheppard's ability as a producer of the classic Greek drama has been more than once demonstrated on the London stage.

A SURGICAL TRIUMPH

I was present at Sir Harry Preston's luncheon party to celebrate the safe return of the Mollisons from the United States.

Mr. Mollison looked remarkably well. Thanks to the skill of the American surgeon he will probably not have even a scar to remind him of the severe facial injuries he sustained when their airplane crashed. It was night when the Mollisons were taken to hospital, and only two doctors were present. The senior surgeon, of course, attended to Mrs. Mollison. Her husband's injuries were stitched by a young man of twenty-five.

He has done a wonderful piece of work.

The aviators were invited to luncheon with President Roosevelt, Mrs. Roosevelt and the President's mother at Hyde Park, N.Y.

"The President," Mr. Mollison told me, "is the kind of man who has only to say 'Go to it, boy,' and you go off and do it with complete confidence and without question."

LONDON'S LIONS

Landseer's lions at the foot of the Nelson column in Trafalgar Square have acquired a fame all their own, but the attention claimed by their majestic grandeur is soon to be challenged, I hear, by two others of their own kind. These are being brought into existence just now by Mr. J. A. Stevenson, the noted sculptor, who has been commissioned to supply them as decorative features of an ornamental garden which will set off the front of Bush House in the Strand. It is appropriate that Mr. Stevenson should be the sculptor for lions, which are to stand within roaring distance of those in Trafalgar Square, because during his training he gained the Landseer scholarship in sculpture at the Royal Academy schools. Although born in Chester, he may be justly reckoned a Scot, his father having been a Banffshire man.

LUSITANIA COMMANDER

LEAVES £4,000 TO HOUSEKEEPER

Commander William Thomas Turner, of De Villiers-avenue, Crosby, near Liverpool, who rose from the position of a deck-boy and commanded the Lusitania when the vessel was sunk by a German submarine off the south coast of Ireland in 1915, and was also in command of the Ivernia when that vessel was torpedoed in the Mediterranean on New Year's Day two years later, left £4,427. He died on June 23.

He left £20 to George Ball, an executor, £100 to his maid, Josephine Cathroll, "for her great help in nursing me during my illness," and all other property to his housekeeper, Mabel Every, "for her unremitting care of me, particularly during my illness for the last three years after my operation and during the last 24 years."

MR. SEYMOUR HICKS'S

DAUGHTER ENGAGED

The engagement is announced between Elizabeth, daughter of Mr. Seymour Hicks, the actor, and Mrs. Seymour Hicks (Elsie Terrell, the actress), of Cheyne Walk, Chelsea, and Norman Harry, second son of Mr. and Mrs. H. J. C. Winterton, of Westgate House, Lichfield, Staffordshire. Mr. Winterton is a land agent, and he met Miss Hicks in the Balearic Islands about a month ago, when they were both on holiday.

Miss Betty Seymour Hicks, like her parents, is on the stage. She made her first appearance on the stage at the Palace Theatre, Melbourne, in February, 1924, as Celeste in "The Man in Dress Clothes." At the end of 1927 she accompanied her parents on their Canadian tour, during which she played a variety of parts.

SOVIET ARREST JAPANESE

Said To Have Crossed Border

Harbin, Sept. 13.

The arrest of a Japanese official of the "Manchukuo" Customs Station, who apparently crossed into Soviet territory, is now the subject of an exchange of Notes between Manchukuo and Soviet officials.

The Japanese concerned is a Mr. Kameyama, employed by the Customs at Suifeng.

He was apparently found walking in the hills to the east of Pogranichnaya by a contingent of Soviet frontier guards.

The arrest took place on Sunday and it is suggested by the Manchurian authorities, who are negotiating for his release, that Mr. Kameyama was merely taking advantage of the Sunday holiday for a hiking expedition.—Reuter.

In scale, Work has been proceeding for a long time and is now nearing completion. The Great Western management prides itself on the fact that the offices have been rebuilt, the station re-roofed, catering accommodation modernised, and platforms and bridges extended without any impairment of the perfect train schedule, which the company counts as its proudest tradition. Generally the architectural effect is pleasing, and it is claimed that services of all kinds will be greatly facilitated.

"RANJI'S" LIFE STORY

The authorised life of "Ranji" arrangements for which were made some months before his death, is not to be written by a famous cricketer.

It was the wish of the Jam that any record of his life should not be confined to cricket, but should deal with his contribution as a statesman and administrator to Indian affairs.

The book is being written by Mr. Roland Wild, author of the life of ex-King Amanullah. Mr. Wild, who knows India well, will be assisted in his task by Professor R. B. Williams, who was the Jam's secretary.

"Ranji's" activities as rose-gardener, big-game shot, angler, nature lover, and philosopher, will doubtless have their place in the book, which will be published in the early spring.

RIBBED EFFECTS IN NEW FABRICS

The Striped Fur
Jacket

(Special All-Mail Service)

LONDON, Aug. 22.
Ribbed effects in fur as well as in all sorts of new fabrics will be the vogue for autumn. Tailors are making good use of corduroy, with its wide stripes, plain and shot. Stripes also appear in velvets and quaint old-world failles, poplins, jersey and tweed.

Many of the new woollen materials show stripes with checks, too, and these are worked into ribbed surfaces.

At the popular Continental resorts separate jackets in linen and lawn have been the greatest success, worn over plain white crepe and silk frocks. Most attractive and fresh are green-and-white stripes, yellow, or red with white. Brown-and-white striped silk and a grey-and-white are the favourites worn over thick white washing silk, and a grey-and-white stripe over grey georgette is cool and charming.

Possibly it was the latter that inspired an expert furrier, who has just designed a long-sleeved hip-length jacket in a very narrow and ingeniously worked stripe of dark grey-chinchilla-rat, with a paler grey stripe alternating. In the distance this attractive model resembles one of the new woollen fabrics that are heavily ribbed.

Civet-cat and several of the jungle family will be in demand for this striped fur-coated model, but for sheer beauty the softer pelts, cut into strips, will make more appeal, and retain their exclusive air.

A travel wrap in grey tweed has a yoke and scarf-collar of black pony, while a dark brown coat and skirt shows a yoke with small epaulettes and scarf-collar of a striped skin.

BROAD-SHOULDERED WOMEN

Fashion dictators, thinking well ahead as usual, have decided that during the coming autumn women will be broad-shouldered. This I understand from a designer who is preparing for the display of women's wear in London next month, is not to be an attempt to make them more masculine in appearance, but rather, by contrast, to give an impression of very slim hips. Masculine fashion, nevertheless, is to be the basis of the new idea, as women's autumn coats are to have squared and padded shoulders similar to those men have worn for a considerable time, and, as if that were not sufficient, epaulettes are to be added to give still greater breadth. It would seem that in colour also women are to be guided by male choice, because I am told that the autumn shade is to be that pale green which has been so popular this summer in flannel trousers.

The new Tientsin-Pukow through express train service, which was inaugurated at 7.15 a.m. last Friday had a very bad start, according to information from Chinese communications circles in Peking. The train consisted of 16 first, second and third class coaches, but only 17 tickets were sold. Mr. Ku Meng-yu, Minister of Railways, who had been visiting Peking during the last few weeks on business, left for Nanking by this train, but he travelled in a special coach.

Brigadier Fleming, commanding Shanghai Area, has been promoted to the rank of Major-General with effect from September 1, 1933. He will leave Shanghai in H. T. Neuraia on November 14 after handing over command of the Area to Brigadier F. O. Thackeray. The appointment to which the General will go is not yet known.

The hearing of the case of General Wang Yi-min, former head of the Tientsin Bureau of Public Safety, on charges of corruption and malfeasance, was continued on August 28 in the Tientsin District Court before Judge-Kung Chieh-chang. The hearing was mostly devoted to examining and cross-examining the two witnesses, Mr. Chen Pao-kuang, who is connected with a stationery store, and Mr. Cheng Cheng-yi, with whom the defendant is alleged to have had business transactions regarding the making of the house number plates. The hearing was adjourned pending further investigations and General Wang was remanded in custody.

A raspberry sponge can be made with thinned or bottled raspberries, three whites of eggs, three ounces of castor sugar, half an ounce of gelatine, a quarter of a pint of water, the rind and juice of half a lemon, and a few drops of cochineal or carmine.

Rub the fruit through a sieve and mix with the sugar. Heat the gelatine, lemon rind and water gently until the gelatine is dissolved, strain into the raspberry puree and add the lemon juice, cochineal and very stiffly beaten white of egg.

Mix lightly, pour into a mould rinsed out with clear water and leave in a cold place till set. If there is not time to let it get quite set it can be piled up roughly on a glass dish.

Fill center with a tin of Beulah Strawberries, or Raspberries.

POT ROAST, SPAGHETTI, IS NOURISHING DISH

Here is a beef pot roast with spaghetti which is a delicious and nourishing dish:

Pot Roast of Beef With Spaghetti
Four to five pounds of round of beef.

One pound of spaghetti (two packages).
Two cups canned or fresh tomatoes.

One quarter pound suet.
One large onion.

One large green pepper.
Two slices of bacon.

Three bay leaves.
Six cloves.

One cup of garlic (optional).
One cup hot water.

One-half cup sour cream.
Grated cheese (optional).
Salt and pepper.

Chop suet and bacon and fry. Add onion, garlic and green pepper finely chopped and when they begin to brown, add the meat.

Brown it on both sides and then cream and tomatoes. Simmer gently for three hours and add two teaspoons of salt and a fourth teaspoon of pepper. Cook the spaghetti in boiling water for twenty minutes, drain and add to the meat mixture. Let cook for ten minutes longer. Serve the meat on a platter with the sauce either in a separate dish or around the meat. Grated cheese may be sprinkled over the meat or sauce if desired.

Use the liquid in which the lentils, soaked, bring it to boiling point, add lentils, sliced onion and tomatoes. Cook gently for three-quarters of an hour, then strain, and mix into the lentil pulp, the breadcrumbs, potatoes, parsley and seasoning. Form into a roll, place in a greased baking pan, cover with butter paper, and bake for half an hour.

CARE OF THE HAIR

CARE OF THE HANDS

By Betty

One is asked so often what to do for red hands, so we will endeavour to tell you how to treat them. It is quite simple, but to obtain results you must be consistent. The puff sleeves in vogue, one of the main reasons for your hands becoming red. Avoid tight clothing at all times, and always keep a pair of old loose gloves handy. Smother your hands with some good cold cream at night and put on the gloves on retiring. If you will keep up this treatment, you will be surprised with the results.

While we are on the subject of cold creams Yardley's Lavender is excellent and very economical since it serves three purposes. The ladies who are not disposed to spend very much on such things will welcome this particular line. As a Day Cream it cleanses and tones the skin; if used at night it nourishes and beautifies the skin while you sleep, and, as a powder base it is splendid. It is delightfully fragrant and refreshing.

If your hands are large and bony, avoid bright nail polish. Remember bright nails emphasize the size of the hands so use either a natural or colourless shade.

In the matter of manicures, here's my rule; look after the cuticle first. The shape and length of the nail comes next in importance, and polish and nail whit last. So, if you haven't time for a complete manicure, for goodness sake do the cuticle. Nail white is now supplied in pencil form and this is handy to carry around.

SAVOURY ROLL FOR VEGETARIAN MEAL

Half-pound well-soaked lentils, one cupful brown breadcrumbs, one good-sized onion, two tomatoes, about half-pound cooked mashed potatoes, chopped parsley, seasoning.

Use the liquid in which the lentils, soaked, bring it to boiling point, add lentils, sliced onion and tomatoes. Cook gently for three-quarters of an hour, then strain, and mix into the lentil pulp, the breadcrumbs, potatoes, parsley and seasoning. Form into a roll, place in a greased baking pan, cover with butter paper, and bake for half an hour.

PAPRIKA

Here is a dish, usually called paprika, which can be made with slices of cold meat or chicken or rabbit.

Choose four large onions, peel them and slice them finely.

Melt six ounces of butter or good margarine in a pan, add the onions, and stew gently till soft enough to be rubbed through a sieve, adding a teaspoonful of salt, half a teaspoonful of paprika, pepper, and about half a pint of sour cream if you have it, or a smaller quantity of milk, preferably sour. This is an ideal way of using up cold left overs.

Blanquette of Veal with Potato Border

Cut cold roast veal in small strips about 2 cups full. Prepare 1 1/2 cups sauce veloute, add meat, bring to boiling point and serve in a potato border.

Veloute Sauce

Melt 2 tablespoons butter, add 2 tablespoons flour, stir until frothy, then add slowly, while stirring constantly, 1 cup chicken broth or white stock, beat until smooth and glossy. Season with salt, pepper and a pinch of nutmeg.

Stewed Whole Apples with Meringue

Paré and core 8 apples, arrange in baking dish, fill cavities with apple or any jelly and finely chopped preserved figs. Cook until tender, heating often with a mixture of hot water, sugar and lemon juice, 8 minutes before removing from oven spread tops with meringue. Let brown lightly.

Petite Marmites of Spinach and Eggs

1 pound of cooked spinach, if not in season use Benihah canned, 6 dessertspoons of cream or milk, 8 fresh eggs, pepper and salt. Butter each marmite. Put in 2 tablespoons of spinach, making a depression in the middle for the egg. Break each egg separately, and slip one gently into each little pot. Add a dessertspoonful of milk and a dust of seasoning. Cover, and bake in a hot oven, 8 minutes. Serve at once.

Green Corn and Green Pea Salad
1 1/2 cups fresh corn 1 1/2 cups cooked young peas, French paprika dressing, 3 strips crisp fried bacon. Lettuce. Chill the ingredients. Mix the corn and peas with dressing to blend and serve garnished with the lettuce and the bacon, which should be chopped and sprinkled over the top.

CUSTARD BETTER FOR NEW GARNISH

Why not garnish the usual custard with a delicious and colourful meringue? In the following recipe the dried apricots add colour and interest to this toothsome dish.

Custard—
One fourth cup sugar.
One tablespoon cornstarch.
Two egg yolks.
One cup scalded milk.
Dash salt.
One-fourth teaspoon vanilla.
Mix and sift the dry ingredients together, pour over scalded milk stirring briskly. Cook until slightly thickened. Add to egg yolks which have been beaten. Cool before pouring into shells.

Meringue

One half cup dried mashed apricots.
Two egg whites.
Three tablespoons sugar.
One-half teaspoon lemon juice.
Soak dried apricots in warm water for an hour and cook slowly until soft. Put through a coarse sieve or ricer, stir in sugar and lemon juice. Beat egg whites until stiff, add the apricot mixture and continue beating until combined mixture will hold, shape. Spread over custard which has been poured into individual custard shells. Serve cold.

VARIATION OF FRUIT PUNCH IS REFRESHING

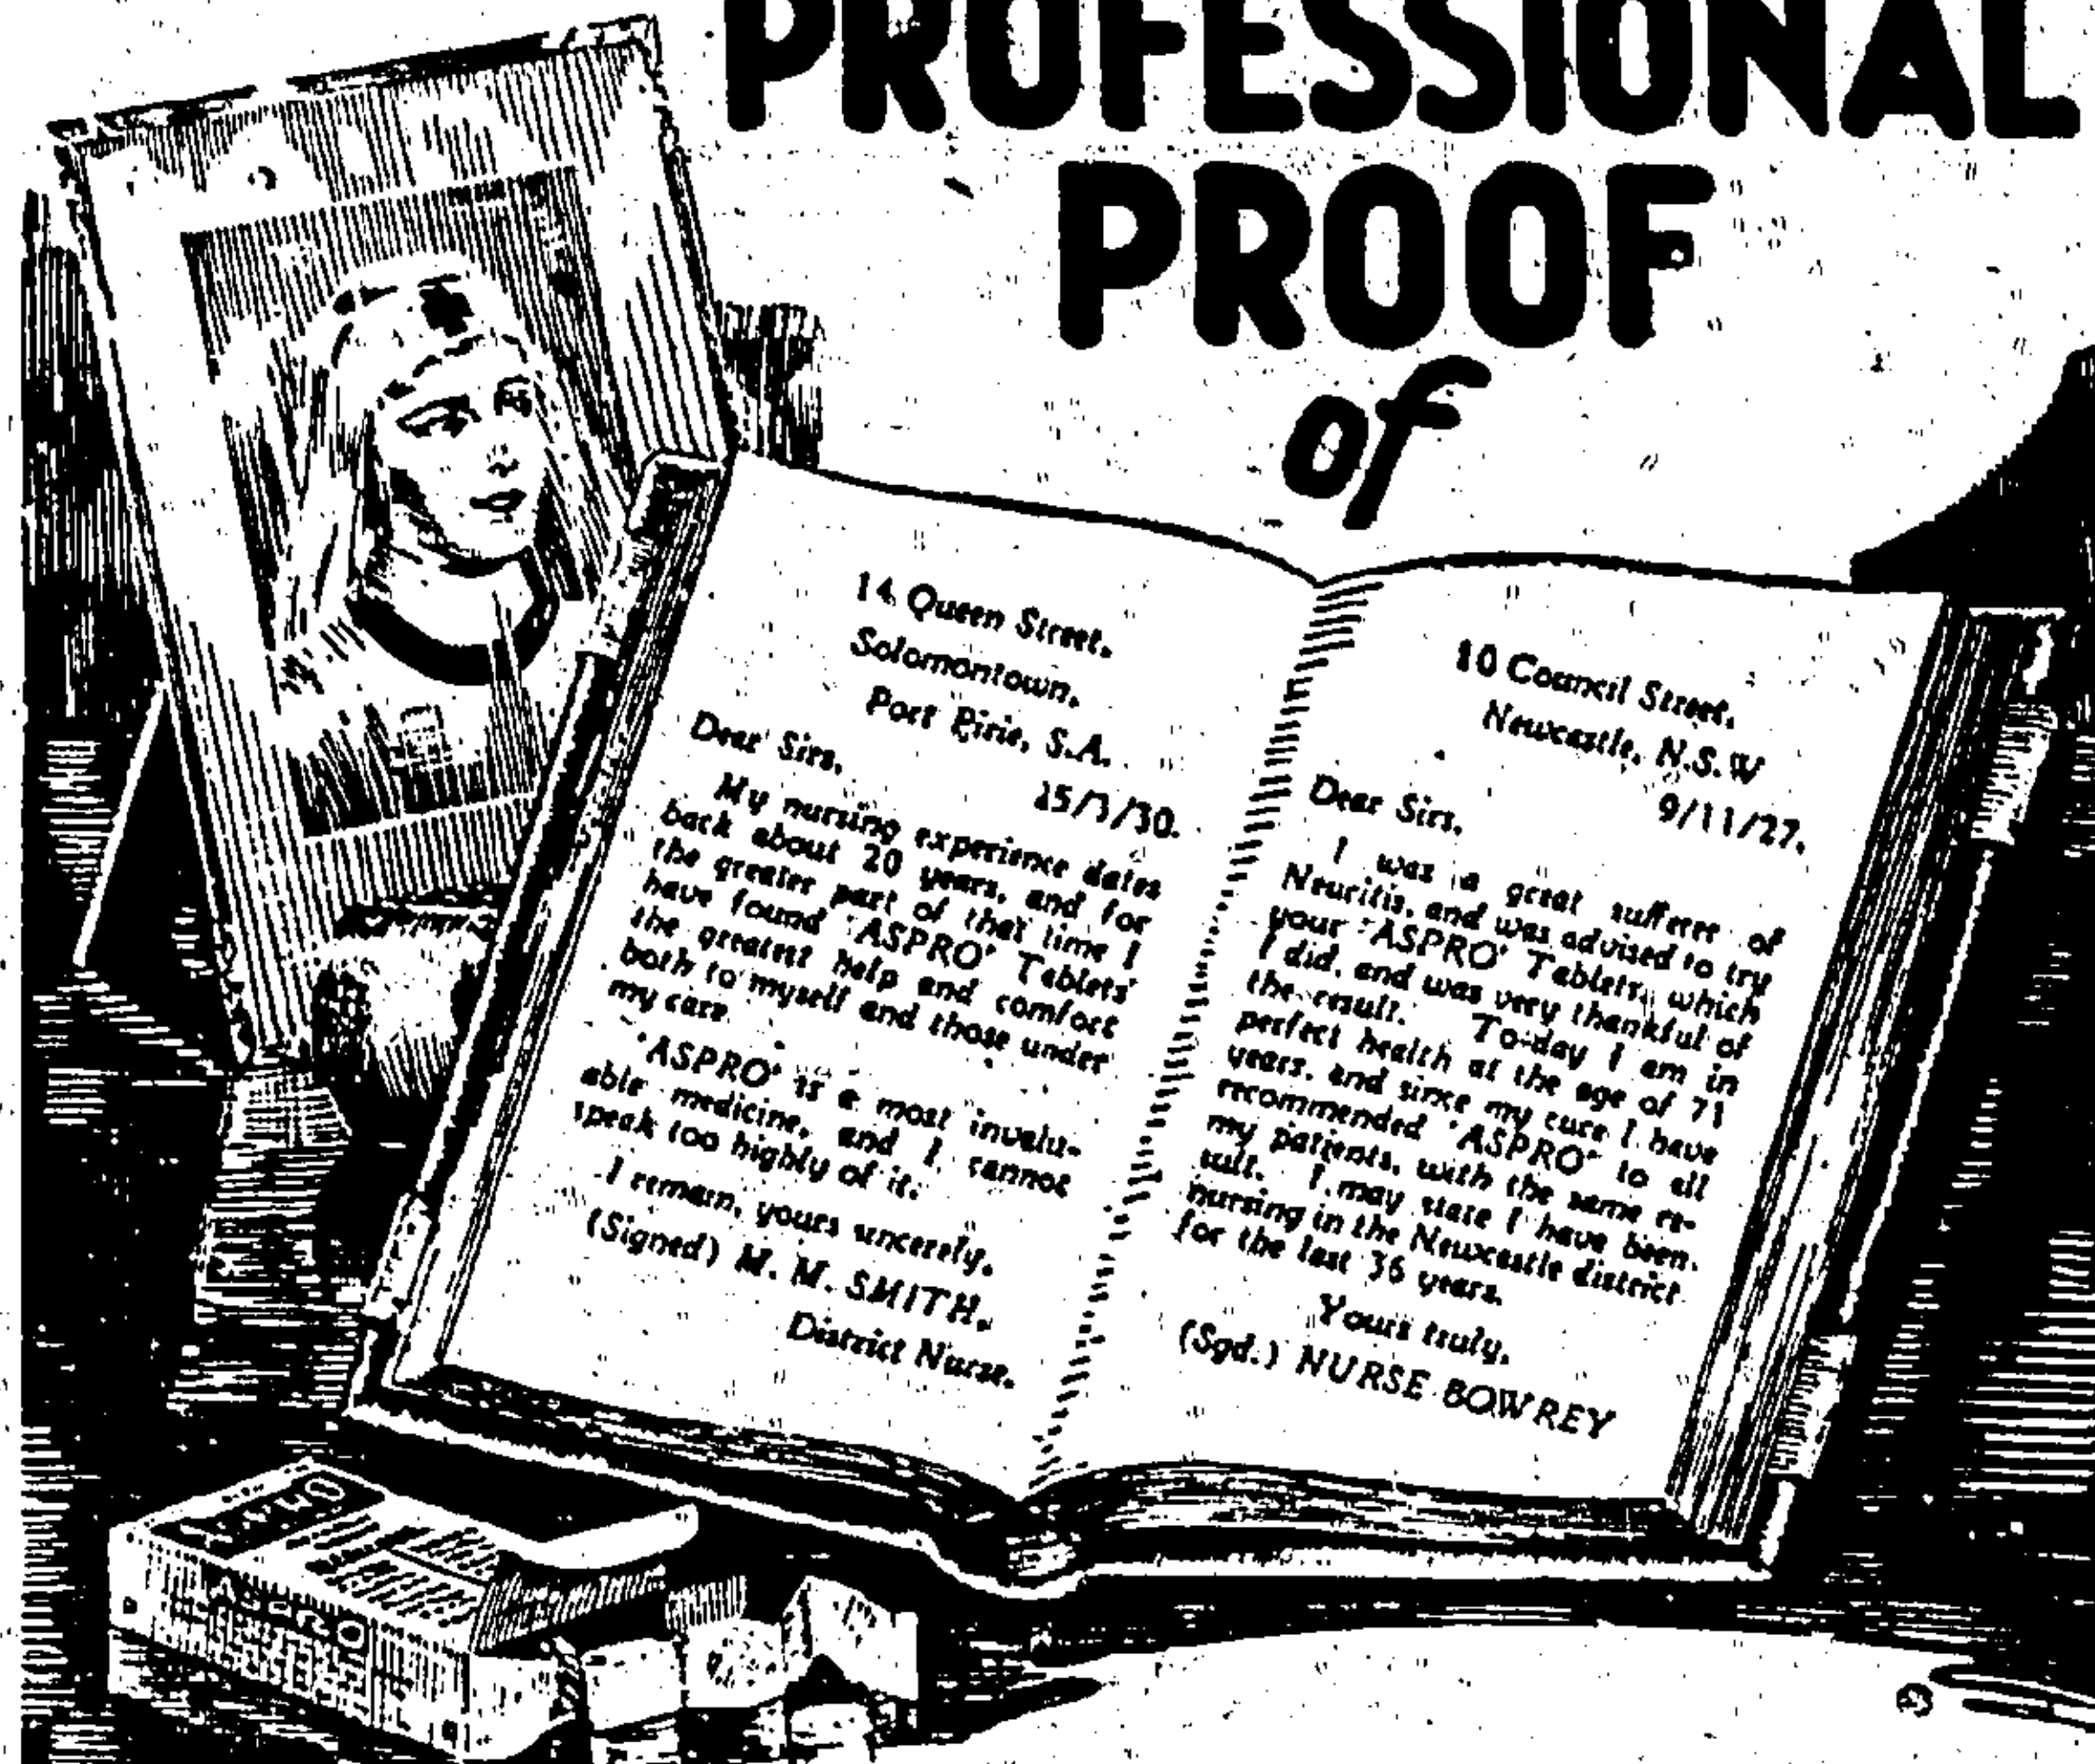

The following recipe makes a delightful and refreshing beverage for the afternoon drink.

Tea Fruit Punch.
3 tablespoons orange pekoe tea
2 quarts boiling water
1 pound granulated sugar
4 oranges
6 fresh pineapple, diced
1 pint of fresh strawberries, crushed

Grate the rind of two lemons and heat with the water to the rapidly boiling stage. Pour over the tea and let stand five minutes, then strain. Cool. Cut two oranges into thin slices and extract the juice from the other two. Cut pineapple into small pieces, crush the berries. Mix fruits together and add orange and lemon juices. When tea is cool, add to the fruit mixture and place in the refrigerator to chill thoroughly. Garnish with fresh mint leaves when serving.

Tea frozen in the cube tray of the refrigerator with a cherry in the center of each cube, is a nice addition to any punch. The flavour of the tea and the cherry add rest to cold beverages.

'ASPRO' 'ASPRO' Effective
Where Others Fail.
Non-Toxic Value Appreciated.

Scotland, 29th August, 1928.

Dear Sirs,

I am writing to let you know of my experience with 'ASPRO'. While I have made no chemical tests the CLINICAL RESULTS FULLY SUBSTANTIATE YOUR CLAIMS OF EXTREME PURITY. I have found that people who could not take ordinary Aspirin owing to the GASTRIC UPSETTIC CAUSED READILY TOLERATED 'ASPRO'. Also doses of 'ASPRO' are effective where similar doses of Aspirin are not. It has, also, taken at night, a mild hypnotic effect which is very valuable considering its non-toxic character.

If you will send me samples for general use I shall have pleasure in distributing them to certain of my patients.

Yours faithfully, F.S. (M.B., Ch. B.) (Name withheld for professional reasons).

Eminent Analyst's
Report

56a, Great Dover St., London, S.E.1.
1st October, 1924.

I have, during the past few months, made an exhaustive examination of a number of the best-known brands of Aspirin Tablets, and have, at the request of Nicholas Pty. Ltd., made a careful examination of 'ASPRO'. As a result of these examinations, I have to report, after 10 individual tests, I find that no single Tablet of 'ASPRO' contains any trace of free Salicylic Acid.

I find the weight of the Tablets very uniform, and that they have been made by some process which, contrary to the general practice, does not cause decomposition and consequent liberation for free Salicylic Acid. All other processes of Aspirin Tablet manufacture with which I am acquainted turn out Tablets which are liable to contain, and do frequently contain, free Salicylic Acid.

ANOTHER DOCTOR
SAYS 'ASPRO' IS VASTLY SUPERIOR TO ORDINARY ASPIRIN

Cheshire, England, 7/2/29.

Dear Sirs,
In most cases I have found 'ASPRO' VASTLY SUPERIOR TO ORDINARY ASPIRIN, ESPECIALLY in patients who, in addition to varying conditions for which 'ASPRO' was given, also suffer from some form of digestive disturbance.

One case in particular is worthy of mention—A NURSE (age 39) engaged in public health and infant welfare work, since coming to Manchester four years ago, has suffered from sub-acute attacks of Rheumatism.

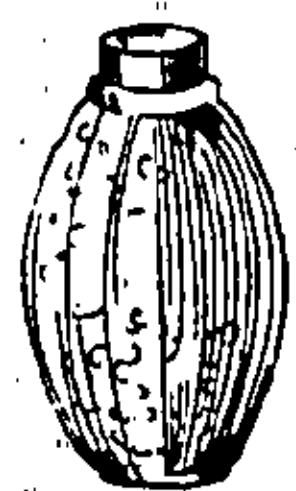

She COULD NEVER TOLERATE SALICYLATE IN THE FORM OF ASPIRIN OR IN MIXTURES. I gave her several sample boxes of 'ASPRO' and she is genuinely delighted with the results, viz.:

ALLEVIATION OF PAIN, UNDISTURBED SLEEP AND COMPLETE FREEDOM FROM ALL AFTER-EFFECTS. IN THE SHAPE OF DEPRESSION AND INDIGESTION. If you care to let me have samples I shall be only too pleased to distribute them.

Yours faithfully

LUCKSTONE BEAUTY
SECRETS

These celebrated preparations not only embellish the skin, but they are an actual preservative to it, and those who make ignorant use of them have the satisfaction of knowing that the improvement effected in the texture of the skin and in the general quality of its tone and surface is a permanent one; for they ensure a healthy skin. The demand for these wonderful preparations has been solely created by recommendation, which proves their undoubted merit.

Luckstone Face Powder.

This preparation is a novel form of thoroughly antiseptic face powder, prepared in a solid block. It is applied to the skin with a soft wet sponge, a very little having been applied, the face is patted quite dry with a soft handkerchief, and the result is a delicate bloom that gives no hint of any external aid having been brought to bear on the face. To say that this powder renders the skin as clear as that of a child is not claiming too much for it—it is the truth. Luckstone Beauty Secret is obtainable in two tints, Rachel or Flesh, delicately and refreshingly perfumed with Luckstone Clove Carnation or Luckstone English Rose. Please specify perfume and tint required when ordering.

Tiny sponge-bags are provided in all shades of dainty rubber bags for carrying the prepared sponge in the hand bag.

Luckstone Ottolene Superfluous Hair Remover

A thoroughly antiseptic and most reliable method of removing superfluous hair. To be used periodically as needed.

Will tell you more about these excellent cosmetics next week.

Some facts about Baby's milk that every mother
should know

THE purity of the dairy milk used in Baby's diet is of vital importance—but consistent quality is important too. Dairy milk varies in composition according to the district in which it is produced and milk that varies is not good for Baby's digestion. Devonshire milk is richest in the nourishing elements that Baby needs.

That is why "Ambrosia" is such a blessing. It is Devonshire milk exclusively, purified and dried in Devonshire itself as soon as it comes from the cows, by a unique process that retains the important vitamins. The quality of "Ambrosia" never varies and it is many times purer and more digestible than any liquid milk you can buy. For these reasons "Ambrosia" is extensively used and recommended by Hospitals, Clinics and Doctors. It is the ideal Milk Food for Expectant Mothers, Nursing Mothers and Infant feeding.

WOODEN COOKING SPOONS

Wooden cooking spoons and other kitchen utensils which are made of white wood soon have a soiled appearance unless measures are taken to keep them white. They should never be washed in hot water, but always in that which is lukewarm and soapy, or they will become soft and a bad colour.

A little lemon juice over white wood articles and allowed to dry on after they are washed will keep them beautifully white if they are allowed to dry naturally. The heat from the fire causes them to warp, while they retain their colour far better if they are dried in the sun.

A wooden draining-board will keep white if it is rubbed down with the cut half of a lemon every day.

SNOW EGGS

Ingredients.—Three eggs, one pint milk, 1oz. sugar, rind of half a lemon, half-inch cinnamon stick, pinch of salt, glace cherries.

Instructions.—Put the milk, lemon rind, and cinnamon into a shallow saucepan (a sauce pan does very well and bring them slowly to boiling point. Separate the yolks and whites of eggs, putting the yolks into a basin and the whites on a plate.

Add a pinch of salt to the whites, and whisk to a very stiff froth. Drop tablespoonfuls of this into the hot milk, poach gently for a few minutes and lift out on to a cold dish.

Add the sugar to the yolks of egg, mixing well.

Four the milk left in the pan slowly on the yolks and sugar, mix well, return to the pan and stir under gentle heat till the mixture thickens.

CARPENTER RESCUES ENGLISHWOMEN

Knock-Out Blow At Nice

(Special Air-Mail Service)

NICE, August 30.

Two Englishwomen here found a knight-errant in Georges Carpentier, the former world's boxing champion and film star.

They were leaving a Cannes night club or their hotel when they were followed by a South American, who had apparently been drinking more champagne than was good for him.

Georges Carpentier, accompanied by an Englishman, life the building just after them, and found the South American attempting to embrace them.

The Englishman went up to the South American, and ordered him to behave himself. His answer was a blow on the jaw. Carpentier then joined in. With one blow he knocked out the South American, breaking his nose.

The ashes of Dr. Frederick Starr, the anthropologist who died at St. Luke's Hospital, Tokyo, will be buried at the foot of Mount Fuji. Friends and former pupils of the scientist reached this decision following receipt of a letter at the Foreign Office from Miss Lucy H. Starr, younger sister of the deceased, who asked that the ashes be buried in Japan because her brother had loved Japan above all other foreign countries that he had visited in the course of his lifetime. After Dr. Starr's death it was intended to send half the ashes to his sister, who lives in Seattle, and keep the remainder in Japan.

"KING OF THE JUNGLE"

Renowned Woman Trainer Makes Film Debut

Mable Stark, who has spent more than 35 years in charge of lions and tigers, makes her movie debut with Buster Crabbe, world-champion swimmer, and Frances Dee, established film star, in "King of the Jungle," animal thrill-romance which opens tomorrow at the Queen's Theatre.

Miss Stark has spent most of her life allied with Ringling, Hagenbeck, Sarrazini, and other circus impresarios, and has trained more wild animals than any woman who ever lived. She has made some 30 trips to hospitals, one of them lasting for more than a year as the result of her encounters with recalcitrant beasts. Her body carries hundreds of scars testifying to her profession.

"King of the Jungle" centers around the Lion Man—the role for which Crabbe was chosen from among scores of other athletes tested for the part. He is a youth who was raised in the jungle among lions, and later brought to America as a circus trainer. Climax of the picture comes when the beasts break loose from their cages during a fire and spread a trail of death throughout the city.

There is a Gala Performance, but the charming adagio dancer (played by Dorothy Dickson's daughter) is missing, and the comic Cicely steps in as her understudy.

In this picture Miss Courtneidge is seen both as the conscientious trouper and as her mother.

Another member of the troupe is Edward Everett Horton, the well-known Hollywood comedian, and Anthony Bushell is the soldier hero.

Maurice Elvey directed "Soldiers of the King" at Islington. "Soldiers of the King," a new Gainsborough picture starring Cicely Courtneidge, coming next Sunday at the King's Theatre, sweeps gaily along providing irresponsible entertainment in which sentiment, song, patriotism, romance and clowning are mixed by hands well versed in the art of popular showmanship.

"THE MAN FROM TORONTO" Comedy Of An Odd Will

There was an element of doubt in the mind of that lovely young widow, Lella Farrar. Would "The Man from Toronto" marry her just for the sake of the money that would accrue from such a marriage? Or would he, if she assumed for the time being another identity, let the money go and wed her for herself alone? After all, a woman enjoys a certain prerogative and it occurs to Jessie Matthews, (who is Lella) that there must be some certain way of testing the Colonial gentleman's fidelity.

Mr. C. S. Liang, the popular manager of the King's Theatre who was responsible for the exterior decorations for the gala night.

"SOLDIERS OF THE KING" Cicely Courtneidge's Amusing Dance

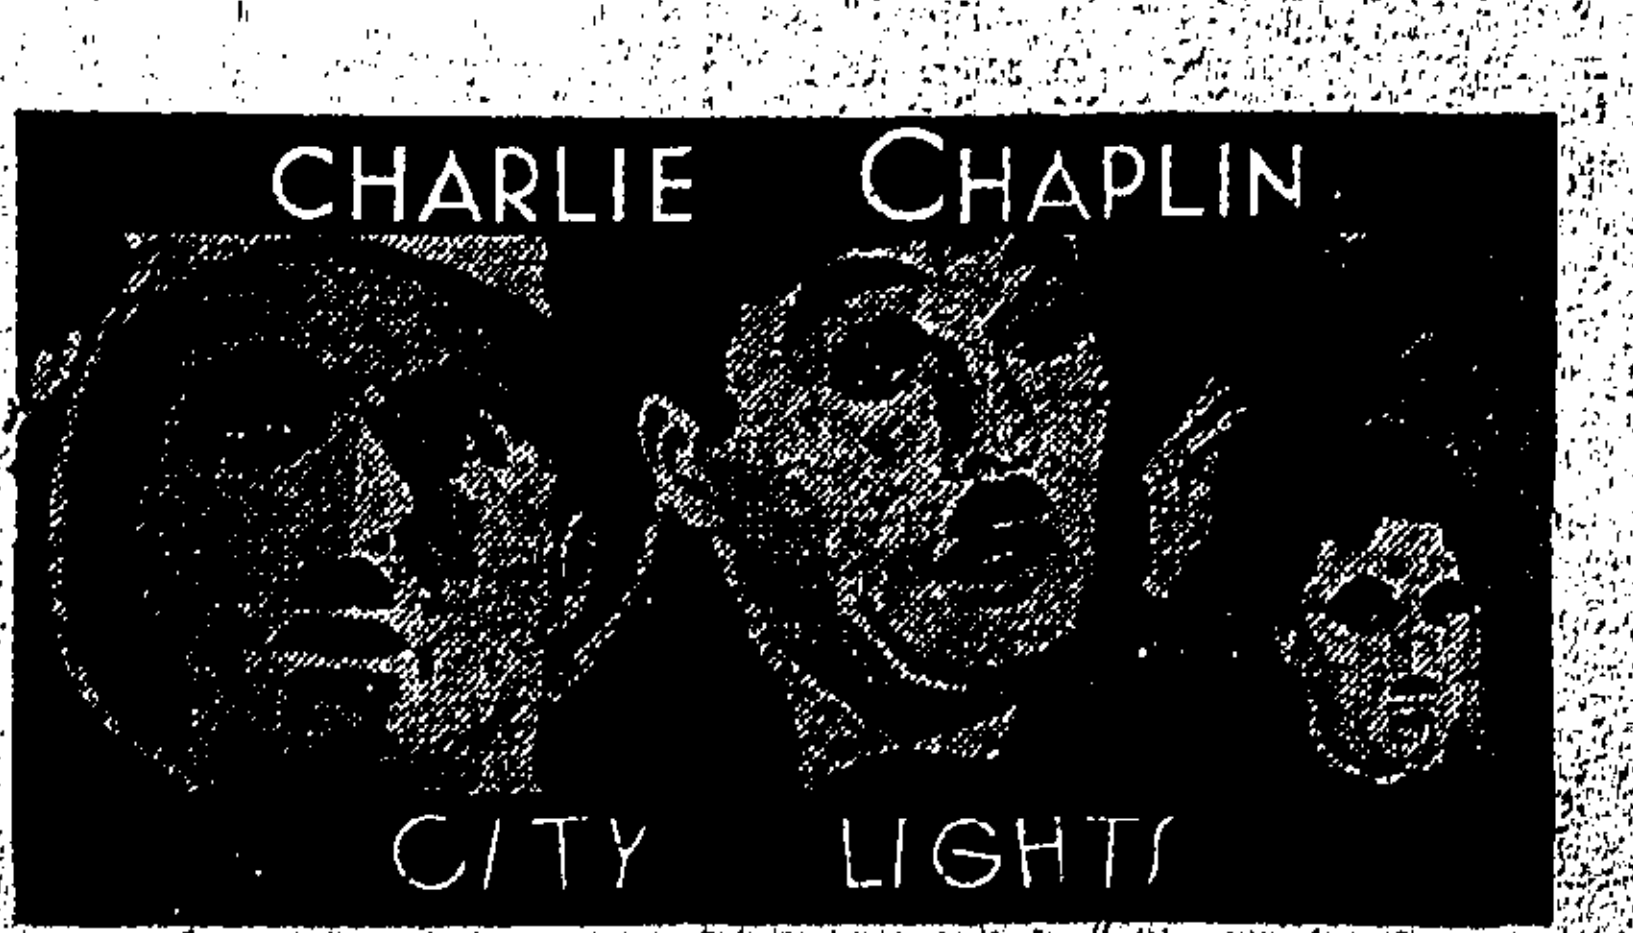

Cicely Courtneidge performs an extremely funny acrobatic dancing act in "Soldiers of the King." It comes about in this way. Miss Courtneidge is a member of a troupe called "The Marvelous" (Continued on previous col.)

"WOMEN WHO PLAY"

Showing At The Queen's Theatre

"Women Who Play" the very entertaining comedy playing at the Queen's Theatre is excellent fare, and we heartily recommend it to theatre goers. The principal role that of the erring wife is cleverly portrayed by Benita Hume. She is very ably supported by George Barraud, as her husband in the story. Joan Barry also adds much to the entertainment of the film. It is a story of a man called Steele who is a waster and who makes love to Mrs. Sones (Miss Hume) although warned by her husband, that this man and his crowd who frequent their home, are not desirable friends she insists on inviting them to her dinner party. Her husband very cleverly invites a friend of his, who happens to be an actress, to pose as a woman of the streets, and asks her to the dinner. The outcome of this is a terrible quarrel between the couple who decide on a divorce, but fate steps in, and the wife sees the folly of her action, and they effect a reconciliation and end up by living happily ever after. It is certainly a very excellent picture, with some really clever acting, well worth seeing.

"THE GREAT JASPER"

Richard Dix In Don Juan Role

"The Great Jasper" new RKO-Radio Picture showing to-day at the Central Theatre starring Richard Dix relates the story of a man of many women whose life was measured in love affairs rather than years. Perhaps nowhere in the world is there a wife who could understand the love of a faithless husband. "The Great Jasper" was every woman's lover, but only one woman's husband, and he never ceased loving his "Jenny-girl" who was his right hand.

But his right hand gradually learned what his left hand was doing! Jenny understood only stern goodness and right honour—only one woman for one man forever and ever. Jasper, now he knew that he could be true to his wife only after death, though his wife was the one woman he did not forget!

"The Great Jasper" provides Dix with a new type of role—a character study requiring great artistry to interpret, and it is said (Continued on previous col.)

"I've often thanked my Mother"

This young lady has a well-formed mouth and sound, regular teeth—good cause to thank her mother. When she was a baby her mother gave her "Ovaltine" Rusks as the first tiny teeth were coming through the gums. Teething time was made easy and sufficient biting exercise was ensured. And throughout childhood "Ovaltine" Rusks kept her teeth strong and healthy.

"Ovaltine" Rusks are made from the purest unbleached wheat flour with a proportion of "Ovaltine" to give them their delicious flavour.

ECHOES OF 1858

69.—Another illustration of Mr. Caldwell's Power.

December 24, 1858.
We have taken some pains to make ourselves acquainted with this last case in which Mr. Caldwell has figured, and which we are happy to say has resulted in the tables being turned upon him in a manner he little expected. We are induced to bring the matter before the public in order to illustrate the power and extent of discretion which are placed in Mr. Caldwell's hands—to exhibit how completely his functions as protector of Chinese dovetailed with his illicit connection with Mahchow Wong—to display the barefaced effrontery of which the man is capable in thus persecuting Chinese, after all that has happened; well knowing that his victims cannot obtain succour and support. We ask our readers, if he will thus act, knowing as he must do, that his credit for veracity has quite gone, and his character sullied with obliquity and disgrace, how must he have acted in the heyday of his career, when he had the Judge, the Attorney General, the Magistrate, and all sections of the Government to back him and to laud him as the most useful officer of the Colonial Service? Upon this occasion, it will be observed that he used a little more circumspection than when he went personally and without the assistance of the police, and searched a room in the occupation of Assow the Police Court Interpreter, whom Mr. Caldwell knew to be about to give evidence before the commission which found this same Mr. Caldwell among other things, of having been in the habit on Mahchow Wong's unsupported information of arresting persons.

On Saturday the 11th instant, 41 Chinese stood in the dock of the Magistrate's Court, charged by Mr. Caldwell with having assembled illegally in contravention of Section XXII. of Ordinance No. 8 of 1858. Mr. Caldwell being duly sworn, deposed that he had seen informed the day previous that the pork butchers of this Colony or a portion of them were to hold a meeting at one of the eating houses in the lower bazaar for the purpose of combining and forming a society. The nature of the meeting was not defined in the first information he received. He placed himself in communication with the Superintendent of Police, who placed Inspector Dunn and some half dozen constables at his disposal. Thus aggrandised he proceeded to the house indicated, which entering, he found the prisoners partaking of a banquet which was spread before them. He asked them what was the object of their meeting and they replied, to partake of the feast. He asked them what they were and they replied pork butchers. He asked them to point out their head man, and they declined to do so. He then ordered the room to be searched, but failed to find evidence against them. He then ordered the Police to search the persons of all present (!!) Whilst this was being done, several of them threw pieces of paper on the floor. Under a table he (Mr. Caldwell) found a document (!!!) whereupon the entire party was arrested and taken to the Police Station (!!!).

(This case was dismissed.—Ed.)

THE INTERPORT SWIM FULL PARTICULARS OF SHANGHAI'S VISIT

Woo Challenge Cup For Championships

(By "WATERMAN.")

Preparations are now well on the way with regard to the forthcoming visit of the swimming team from Shanghai, which is now competing at Kobe. The Shanghai swimmers will be here on October 2, when they will meet Hong Kong in five events. They will proceed by the President Coolidge to Manila, where they will meet the swimmers of that city, returning here on October 9, when five other events between Hong Kong and Shanghai—or to be strictly accurate, between the V.R.C. and the Foreign Y.M.C.A. of Shanghai, will be decided.

Much has been written about the composition of the visiting team, but I have been privileged to see a letter written to the Secretary of the V.R.C. in which it was mentioned that the team will comprise Frank Hadley, A. Logan, R. Dodd, J. R. Moffett, R. R. Dell, D. J. Leonard, E. McAllister, J. Block, A. Brousseau and J. Dearn. These swimmers, I understand, represent the cream of Shanghai's swimming talents and one or two of them are credited with having done the hundred under 60 seconds. In fact, it is believed that Hadley is a "57 man" and if that is the case, it looks as if Shanghai will walk away with the sprint.

On October 2, the events will be the Maddy race, the back strokes, the 220 yards free style, the 100 yards free style and the fancy diving. It will be seen that the long distance event and the water polo game is not included, because the Shanghai team has asked that the programme be so arranged that they may not be unduly strained by their meeting in Hong Kong before they visit Manila. When they return on October 9, the programme will consist of the team race, six a side (50 yards each), the 440 yards, the 50 yards, the 100 yards Breast Stroke and the water polo.

The President Coolidge sails from Hong Kong at midnight on October 10, so that the Interport dinner will be arranged to take place on the 10th.

Local Talent

With regard to the local men, Gittins is now in training and I understand he will be ready for the short distances by October, though he has expressed his intention of merely swimming in the team race. Lawrence is now much stronger than at the beginning of the season and will be a valuable man to have on our side up to the 220. E. B. da Rosa is another good short distance man. Lionel Pereira is the star turn for us and will have to look after the longer races and the back strokes, while H. M. Remedios will have to do service in the breast strokes. G. J. Smith is a good man for the back strokes. We can muster up a strong side for the team race and in that connection have nothing to fear from Shanghai although they have Hadley in their ranks.

As far as the water polo is concerned, the visiting team cannot be expected to field a very strong side, and therefore Hong Kong stands at a very great advantage.

The Challenge Cup

Several years ago, the late Mr. Woo Hay Tong donated a cup to the V.R.C. to be competed for annually by the Chinese community, the race to be over 880 yards. The V.R.C. conducted this race in 1923-1924 and 1925, but the event has been allowed to lapse and it was decided to revive it this year. Accordingly, notices have been sent to the Secretaries of all Chinese swimming Clubs inviting entries to this race, which is open to all amateurs.

This opens up an interesting question as many of the best Chinese swimmers are members of clubs affiliated to the Hong Kong International Amateur Swimming Association, and unless permission is obtained from the association they may not want to compete, though why they should be unable to get the necessary permission is difficult to say. In all probability, if they were to ask the association to allow them to swim in what is a purely an amateur sport, such permission will not be withheld. In Shanghai, it is understood, the Association freely allows its members to compete in open amateur events conducted by clubs not affiliated with the association.

The programme for the forthcoming championships is as follows:—September 25:

Championship Events:
100 yards free style.
100 yards backstrokes.
100 yards free style (boys under 15).

Other Events:
880 yards opened to Chinese (Woo Challenge Cup).
V.R.C. "D" Class Aggregate (80 yards back strokes).

THE WATER SUPPLY

Position Greatly Improved

The Public Works Department inform us that the total island storage this morning amounted to 1,736 mill. galls, being an increase of 289 mill. galls, during the past 48 hours. Even without further rain the reservoirs will continue to rise for a few days yet.

The storage position is now appreciably better than it was on September 13, 1928—when the dry spell, responsible for the 1929 water shortage had set in.

The storage on September 13, 1928, amounted to 1,854 mill. galls. No extension of the present hours of supply are possible just yet, but a little more rain might improve the position sufficiently to enable this step to be taken.

The total rainfall for the past 48 hours has varied from 7.00 inches at Tytam to 9.94 inches at Aberdeen.

All the mainland reservoirs are full and they will remain at or near capacity for the next few weeks without further rain.

FURNITURE DEALER'S CLAIM

Debt Paid On Chinese
New Year

An unsuccessful claim for $113 against Mr. A. Martin of 19, Cameron Road, was heard at the Supreme Court yesterday. The amount represented the balance due on a total indebtedness of $635.60.

Mr. C. Lowe, of Denny and Co., represented the Lun Hing Furniture Company, plaintiffs, and Mr. R. H. Cole, of Geo. K. Hall Bryton and Co., appeared for defendant.

The Chief Justice, Mr. J. R. Wood, deputised for the Puisne Judge, Mr. R. E. Lindsell.

Evidence was given to the effect that Mrs. Martin had paid only one instalment for the months of January and February.

Mrs. Martin testified that she went to the shop on January 27 and paid the money to a man who was in charge, and on February 3 she paid that month's instalment.

Cross-examined she said she was not aware that January 27 was the Chinese New Year and that therefore the shop would be closed. She maintained that it was open when she called and a man in charge, accepted the money.

The Chief Justice said that further evidence would not be necessary as he was satisfied with Mrs. Martin's evidence.

Judgment was given for defendant for $80.

Defendants admitted liability for the remainder of the debt, which had been paid into court.

THE TUNG WAH FRAUD CASE

SOLICITOR'S CRITICISM OF EURO-PEAN POLICE OFFICER

"Closed His Eyes And Allowed This Fraud"

Some startling allegations were made against Inspector Elston by Mr. D'Almada at Central Magistracy yesterday when the Tung Wah Hospital Fraud Case was continued before Mr. Schofield.

It will be recalled that three Chinese, Chan Kau, Wong Kwai Chi and Hui Kwong are charged with swindling the Tung Wah Hospital over the price of the removal of human remains from the new G. C. H. site at Pokfulam to Aplichau for re-burial.

Mr. M. K. Lo appeared for the prosecution while the second and third defendants were represented by Mr. F. X. D'Almada. Mr. P. T. K. Kemble, who originally appeared for the first defendant, intimated yesterday that he had received no further instructions and accordingly withdrew from the case.

CASE FOR THE DEFENDENTS

After the case for the prosecution had closed, Mr. D'Almada submitted that he had no case to answer and in doing so, said:—

I submit I have no case to answer and this even goes for the first defendant. We are charged with conspiracy with others to defraud the Tung Wah Hospital. In the first place there are three points to be considered in conspiracy cases. The first is that the foundation of the existence of a conspiracy must be proved before evidence can be taken. Secondly, if having proved that there is an agreement to conspire, the evidence must be given to connect defendant with the conspirators, and, thirdly, that the person whose acts are about to be given in evidence was connected with the defendant in the conspiracy.

If the prosecution prove at all any agreement between Chan Ka and my clients, and others of conspiracy, first evidence must be adduced to show the existence of such an agreement. Until such an agreement has been proved, then evidence to support that agreement can be admitted.

I submit you will find no evidence at all of any agreement between the parties.

Mr. Lo in opening his case stated that between the 5th and 13th July, first defendant reported that the work had been completed and the total number of sets to be re-buried in Aplichau was 23,194. The evidence on this point consists of memos delivered by 1st defendant to his employers. No evidence has been brought to connect these memos with my clients' signatures. The re-burial was completed on June 18 or 19, and they had to count the number of sets they had buried. The total was reckoned by calculation and the only way for them to point out whether 23,000 had been buried was to dig up the trenches and count the urns. Even up to now they cannot say how many have been buried and how much the Tung Wah have to pay. The Tung Wah do not look to the sub-contractor for anything. How could this man, Wong Shun, (the district watchman) on June 18, at that dinner in the To To Suen Restaurant say that he was asked to sign a document for 23,194 buried, when they had not yet completed the work. That evidence cannot be believed and that document is not produced.

District Watchman's Evidence Criticised

The evidence chiefly relied upon by the prosecution is that of the district watchman. Does your Worship give any credence to that evidence? My friend has stated he was in the swindle, in other words that he is a co-conspirator with the defendants. His evidence cannot be relied upon and cannot be believed. It is stated in his evidence that all his work was done under the direction of the first defendant and he also reported to the Inspector about a jump from 2,999 to 4,000.

Inspector Elston Criticised

What did the Inspector tell him to do? His merely said go on with your work and gave him instructions to be more careful. The watchman also reported the jump from 4,999 to 6,000 and received the same answer. That evidence is not contradicted by the Inspector at all. From that it shows that Inspector Elston knew, in the early days, of the exhumation at Tin Sin Kong and that a fraud was being perpetrated and proceeded on the Tung Wah. He took no steps to bring it to the notice of the Tung Wah authorities or the S.C.A.

Mr. Lo's Protest

Mr. Lo: I submit this reflects on a very efficient officer. My friend has had some years of experience. Have you ever heard of prosecution witnesses complaining that another witness for the prosecution does not contradict any other witness.

Mr. Schofield: This is the most extraordinary contention I have ever heard.

Mr. Lo: I submit that evidence that the Inspector had made a report to the S.C.A. has been given.

Mr. D'Almada, continuing, said:—I will say that Inspector Elston took no notice beyond telling the watchman to be more careful and I will say that Inspector Elston should have known there was a fraud being committed on June 13, and he ought to have stopped it and prosecuted these men at once. He closed his eyes and allowed this fraud to be perpetrated. Mr. Schofield: Can you say a fraud was perpetrated before money is paid?

Mr. D'Almada: Yes, intent to defraud and attempt to defraud. Mr. D'Almada went on to say that what evidence the district watchman tended could not be accepted as it was the evidence of a man whom Mr. Lo referred to as an accomplice, and also that there was no collaboration of that evidence.

The prosecution also relied on the evidence of the 4th and 5th defendants and there is nothing in the 4th defendant's evidence to connect the 1st, 2nd and 3rd defendants with the conspiracy. The 5th defendant's evidence did not prove anything of the swindle and he also goes on to say that he was warned by Inspector Elston that if he gave his statement correctly and if he told the truth, nothing would happen to him. Then in this Court, the man told your Worship that at 7 o'clock on the morning of the trial, Inspector Elston saw him in jail and again warned him of the consequences of not telling the truth.

"That evidence is not contradicted," Mr. D'Almada went on, "and cannot be admitted because it was obtained under threat or promise. I submit that on the evidence as a whole your Worship will not find one tittle of evidence to prove the foundation of an agreement to conspire. I submit that there is no case for the second and third defendants to answer on the present charge as there is no evidence to show that 11,000 sets had been buried. It was simply reckoned by calculation."

Mr. Schofield, however, ruled that there was a case for the defendants to answer and after Chan Kan had given evidence, regarding the exhumation and re-burial work hearing was adjourned till Wednesday, September 20.

CARELESS BLASTING

Police Officer's Lucky Escape

It was revealed at the Magistracy yesterday morning that Sergeant Baker had a lucky escape on August 24, when riding a motor cycle near T'yan, a piece of granite, weighing 10 pounds struck him on the right wrist, inflicting a nasty wound.

The incident was related at the Central Magistracy this morning, when the foreman of the Y. Lee contractors, summoned for failing to take proper precautions during blasting operations, was fined $200.

Sergeant Baker said there were no flags or signals on the road. Mr. Schofield said that such an incident might have easily caused

GOVERNOR OF MACAO

Returns From Conference In Europe

LOCAL WELCOME

His Excellency the Governor of Macao, Lieut. Col. A. J. Bernardes de Miranda, accompanied by his wife, and the Treasurer of Macao, Mr. Fernando Castilho Dias Costa arrived in the Colony on Tuesday on board the s.s. Cremer and left yesterday at 1 p.m. for Macao on board the s.s. Sui Tai, which made a special trip to Macao.

His Excellency had been to the Imperial Conference at Lisbon at which the Governors of all the Portuguese Colonies were present to discuss Colonial matters with the Portuguese Minister of the Colonies, Dr. Armindo Monteiro, an eminent Portuguese economist.

On his arrival in Hongkong, His Excellency was met by a large gathering from the Portuguese community, amongst them, the acting Consul, Mr. P. V. Botelho and Mrs. Botelho, the Portuguese Consul for Canton, Mr. Alves Guerra and Mrs. Guerra, Major Peregrino de Costa, Lieut. the Marquis de Ficalho, A.D.C. to Dr. Rocha Santos, acting Governor of Macao, and members of the staff of the local branch of the Macao Bank.

His Excellency, it is understood, was to have lunched at Government House, but owing to the inclemency of the weather, he had to decline the invitation.

The local Portuguese community entertained His Excellency and Party at the Club Lusitano, Mr. P. V. Botelho presiding. Mr. Botelho congratulated His Excellency on the success of the Conference with the Minister for the Colonies and envisaged prosperity for the Portuguese Colonies particularly Macao.

It is feared that the arrangements made in Macao by the Chinese community to welcome the Governor, were somewhat marred by the typhoon. Chinese arches were erected along the wharf and other roads through which the Governmental party were to pass, but some of these had been blown down. Whether or not they had been restored in time for the Governor's return is not certain.

ANTI-LEPROSY WORK

Progress In Fukien

Mr. William Yinson Lee of the North China Branch of the Sun Life Assurance Co. of Canada who is director of the Chinese Mission to Lepers, with headquarters in Shanghai, has reported that the Foochow and Amoy Auxiliaries of the Mission have shown great activity recently in developing their anti-leprosy work. Both these cities are hotbeds of the dread disease and practically nothing had been done in the way of relief until the Chinese Mission to Lepers sent its general secretary, the Rev. T. C. Wu, to organize those auxiliaries three years ago. Various obstacles had to be surmounted before effective work could be done, the principal being the securing of support from the local authorities.

The Mission secured a large tract of government land for the erection of the Amoy leprosy hospital during Mr. Yin Son Lee's visit fifteen months ago, but it was found unsuitable. This has now been exchanged for 200 mows of land at Ngau-tau Shan, a few miles from Amoy, where the patients can grow their own food and do work which makes them more or less self-supporting.

Dr. Lim Boon Keng is chairman and other eminent physicians, including one of the division chiefs of the Bureau of Public Safety are members of the Auxiliary and funds are now being raised for the erection of the buildings.

The Foochow auxiliary was strengthened during Mr. Yin Son Lee's visit last month by the addition of the chief of Police (General Taw Shu-sam), several prominent doctors and members of the Rotary and Y. M. C. A. A piece of suitable government land has been promised and steps are being taken to raise funds for the erection of a leprosy hospital like that in Amoy. The local authorities have agreed to bear part of the cost of maintenance.

Mr. Yinson Lee is now visiting Canton and will return to Shanghai early next week.

Somebody's death, and then there would have been a charge of manslaughter against defendant.

HONG KONG, SEPTEMBER 14, 1933.

THE KULING CONFERENCE

The Kuling Conference was described as an informal gathering of national leaders. No formal resolutions were passed and little enough information given as to what transpired. Mr. T. V. Soong, back from his attendance at the World Economic Conference, and the negotiation of the fifty million dollar loan with America, had no doubt much to say. Mr. Soong, Mr. Wang Ching Wei and General Chiang Kai Shek appear to have been what Americans would call the "Big Three" of the Conference. Mr. Wang will remain as political head of the Government perhaps taking the post of Chairman of the National Government. Mr. T. V. Soong is to head an amalgamation of several ministries into a kind of reconstruction department, and Chiang Kai Shek will be in supreme command of the fighting forces. The Central Press, a Canton News Agency, mentions the pro-Japanese Huang Fu as probable Foreign Minister.

A careful reading of the news from Kuling shows that the principal subjects under discussion were—

1.—Foreign relations, primarily with regard to Japan; and secondarily with America and the European nations.

2.—Internal reconstruction and the use of the fifty million dollar loan.

3.—Suppression of the Communists.

4.—Relations with Canton and the next session of the Kuomintang National Congress, which should take place in November.

There is no doubt a strong party in favour of a Sino-Japanese entente. Its exponents hold that Japan, whatever her ambitions may be, and whatever she may have done in the past, is the one power really able to assist China. They argue that China has an inherent strength which is far too great for any fear to be felt; that Russia is Japan's real enemy; that it is to the interests of both China and Japan to be economic and military allies. Mr. T. V. Soong appears to take a middle view, and to feel that Japan's predatory instincts need to be counteracted by America and Europe, perhaps through the medium of the League of Nations, in order to prevent any one power getting too much hold. This is the general trend of Chinese policy, following the lesson of Russian and Japanese efforts to be helpful at their own price. Nanking has evidently resigned itself to the results of the War and is setting to work to formulate a programme for putting the country into order. It remains to be seen whether this one of China's many efforts, in the same line, since the days of the Dowager Empress, will indeed succeed, or if the Republic will once more emulate a poet of the East.

Indeed, indeed, repentance of I swore,
But was I sober when I swore.
And then, came spring and rose in hand,
My threadbare penitence in pieces tore.

Canton is emphatic on the subject, and fully believes that the Nanking Government has sold the nation, and not a single minister has a thought beyond personal gain.

The usual announcements were made at Kuling about the suppression of the Communists. In this sphere, however, the Canton troops appear to be bearing the brunt of the fighting, and complaints of the bad behaviour of Nanking troops are disturbingly frequent. On the other hand, the movement appears to be less strong around Hankow, and neither Canton nor Nanking is likely to make a free gift of the Communist country to the other party. It would be interesting, moreover, to know what is being done with the large number of aeroplanes, and the big quantities of war material imported by both governments. Pessimists declare that the two sides are carefully saving up for a first class civil war.

Not the smallest progress was made from Kuling towards a Nanking-Canton reconciliation. So far the two factions have agreed to differ. Revenues are not sent to Nanking, and Canton gets nothing from the national exchequer. The Leung Kwang provinces, are virtually independent, and no one's writ runs in

OBITUARY

Mr. Gilbert R. Ashford

The ashes of the late Mr. Gilbert R. Ashford, formerly of the British Cigarette Company, Ltd., Pootung, were placed in Bubbling Well Cemetery Chapel on Tuesday afternoon, the ceremony being strictly private with no flowers, in accordance with the wishes of the deceased. The late Mr. Ashford, who died on September 1, following a serious operation, had been in the employ of the British Cigarette Company, Ltd., for twenty-five years, ten years being spent in Hankow, and he and Mrs. Ashford had resided in Shanghai since 1929.

Although physically unable to take part in strenuous sports, Mr. Ashford was a keen huntsman. He was a native of Exeter, England, and served in the Great War, where he was gassed and never fully recovered from the effects. He leaves a widow.

Senor Olegario Maciel

The death has occurred of His Excellency Senor Olegario Maciel, the President of the Estado de Minas Geraes. The news was officially received at the Brazilian Consulate-General yesterday by cable.

The Brazilian Government has announced that the next three days will be dedicated to his memory as days of national mourning.

MR. ALFRED SUTRO

London, Sept. 13.
The death occurred early this morning from pneumonia, of Mr. Alfred Sutro, O.B.E., the well-known playwright, a brother-in-law to Lord Reading.—Reuter.

Educated at the City of London School and in Brussels, Mr. Sutro was 70 years of age. His first stage production was the joint adaptation, with Mr. Arthur Boucher, of "The Chill Widow" in 1896. Twenty-four of his plays have been produced.

Fukien and Kiangsi. The Kuomintang National Congress will not be held, and though each party may call a gathering of its own adherents in its own capital, there will be no general discussion of differences and attempt to get together.

The Kuling Conference evidently saw an important consolidation of the Nanking Government and the adoption of a policy. In the matter of internal development much the same process is going on all over China. Nanking is evidently determined to consolidate its hold over the five provinces that it controls to-day, and not to seek unification by force. The South-West is pursuing the same course; Szechuan is left to its own devices, Shan-tung and the North-West are managed by their war lords. Most of the provincial governments are fairly capable, though there are bad examples to the contrary. If the country is allowed a few years of peace, a gathering of these different factions may then agree upon some kind of federation. But the necessary prelude is a period of peace, and a self-denial ordinance against abusive propaganda of the kind that leads to war.

EARL OF KERRY
KILLED

Fatal Tube
Accident

London, Sept. 12.
The nineteen-years-old Earl of Kerry, eldest son and heir of the Marquis of Lansdowne, was the victim of a terrible accident in London to-night.

The young Earl fell from the platform at a tube station as a train was rushing through and was killed instantly.

The first two carriages ran over his body.
It is thought that he was standing too close to the edge of the platform and was seized by giddiness as the tube train approached.

In 1928, when he was only fifteen years of age, the Earl survived a succession of illnesses including a serious attack of typhoid.
He was described as an exceptionally brilliant youth. He had just returned from a tour of Germany, arriving in London this morning. He was due to rejoin his family at Derreen, Kenmare, Co. Kerry in Ireland to-morrow.

The Earl of Kerry was born in October, 1913, the eldest son of the sixth Marquess of Lansdowne, who succeeded to the title in 1927, and who has two other sons and two daughters.—Reuter.

LOCAL AND GENERAL

One case each of diphtheria, enteric and meningitis were reported on Tuesday.

Mr. Balfour occupied the Bench at the Central Police Court yesterday in the absence of Mr. Wynne Jones who is acting Kowloon Magistrate for a fortnight during Mr. Butters' leave.

For failing to pay wages to her "mui-tai," Mak Wong Hi, a married woman living at Apichau was fined $10 by Mr. Schofield, and ordered to deposit the overdue wages, amounting to $52, with the S.C.A.

Mrs. R. O. Hall, wife of The Rev. Ronald Hall, Bishop of Victoria and Diocese, arrived in the colony on Sunday last and has taken up residence at Bishop's House, Albert Road. Arriving with Mrs. Hall were her two small children.

The Hongkong Philharmonic Society have decided to stage "The Pirates of Penzance" in the spring. All who are interested should get in touch with the Hon. Secretary, 83, Waterloo Road, Kowloon.

An apprentice printer, who stole three pieces of clothing from his master at the Ki Shing Printing Shop was bound over by Mr. Balfour yesterday. Detective-Sergeant Fowle said the defendant had been employed for about a year at a monthly wage of $1.50. He was caught by a detective attempting to pawn the clothing which was valued at $15.

As a result of a police raid on Tuesday night, a Chinese was brought before Mr. Schofield yesterday charged with keeping a brothel at two addresses. The police said that the man was a leading figure in the traffic and asked for the maximum penalty. The magistrate imposed two fines of $250, or three months' hard labour on each charge, the sentences to be consecutive, and in addition imposed a month's hard labour on each charge without option.

BRITAIN'S TRADE
IMPROVES

Returns Very Encouraging

London, Sept. 12.
FROM many reliable sources recently, evidence has been forthcoming of a very definite improvement in trading conditions in Great Britain.

The best possible confirmations are provided by the Board of Trade returns issued to day which show that the improvement is not confined to a few trades and industries only, but includes business generally.

For the eight months to the end of August, imports decreased by about £35 1/2 millions as compared with the corresponding period of last year, while over the same period, the decrease in exports was about £24 1/2 millions.

In recent months, however, the figures have tended to improve and those for August are regarded as exceptionally encouraging.

Exports last month totalled £35,297,184 as compared with £34,171,060 in July and £32,043,245 in August 1932.

Imports compared with August last year show an increase of £3,432,977 which is entirely due to the larger amounts of raw materials entering the country.

Some of the principal increases in exports compared with a year ago occur in iron and steel, woolen manufactures, electrical goods and cutlery and hardware. British automobile exports also continue to increase.—British Wireless.

PERSISTENT RAIN IN LONDON AREA

London, Sept. 12.
London has experienced its first wet day for several weeks. Light rain was general over Southern England to-day and fell also in many parts of the North. The forecast is for unsettled conditions.—British Wireless.

London, Sept. 13.
The drought has been routed and rain has been falling persistently in the London area for nearly twenty-four hours.

The break in the weather has gladdened the hearts of all but the urban sun-bathers.—Reuter.

REINSTATEMENT OF PAO YU LIN

Peiping, Sept. 12.
The Chinese Press in Peiping is now adding its voice to the campaign for the retention of Pao Yu-lin as the Director of Public Safety in Peiping.

Local residents and public bodies, it is reported, are flooding Nanking with telegrams urging the reinstatement of Pao Yu-lin.—Reuter.

HONG KONG HAILS
"CAVALCADE"

Great Stars In A Fine

KING'S THEATRE

Never in the history of the Colony were so many of our leading residents present in any theatre at the same time as last night when the whole of Hongkong attended the premiere of "Cavalcade" at the King's Theatre.

The picture was announced to start at 9.30 p.m. but long before that hour, the streams of cars that pulled up outside the theatre reminded one of the "first nights" in England and America.

His Excellency the Governor and Lady Peel, accompanied by Capt. Walter, R.A., A.D.C., and Mr. J. T. Pilcher (Private Secretary) were the guests of Sir Sou-son Chow, and others present included the Commodore, H.E. the General Officer Commanding and Mrs. Borrett.

King's Theatre was indeed a gay spectacle, for not only did those who attended this, the first showing of "Cavalcade" help to brighten the scene, but the many people who collected outside the theatre to watch the "arrivals" also lent a unique touch to the proceedings.

After the performance, the official guests were entertained to an excellent supper prepared by the Hong Kong Hotel and the consensus of opinion after the picture was that "Cavalcade", despite all the advance reports published about it, had exceeded all expectations.

The Film.

Many of us have read the story and the more fortunate ones have already seen the picture in England or America. We have only just seen it, but we venture the opinion that "Cavalcade" is a picture which no one can afford to miss.

Noel Coward chose a daring theme and the daring of this brilliant producer was even greater in presenting it. That such daring was justified, however, was proved by the enthusiasm of those who saw it.

The cast headed by Diana Wyllard and Clive Brook is magnificent. Miss Wynyard especially contributing an excellent performance in her role as Jane Marryot. The supporters are perfectly cast, in colourful roles, while Frank Lloyd's direction and Ernest Palmer's photography leave nothing to be desired.

We nominate "Cavalcade" as the best of the "best pictures of the year" for many years past and to come, and it would be no exaggeration to state that those who saw the picture last night must have left the theatre feeling like Oliver Twist.

HYPERION WINS ST. LEGER

Leads From Start To Finish

London, Sept. 13. Three hundred thousand people, in glorious weather, saw Lord Derby win the St. Leger for the fifth time with his Derby winner Hyperion, who leading from start to finish won easily. The French challenger, Thor, though he looked well, finished in the penultimate position. King Salmon was fourth, Harbinger fifth, Raymond sixth, Light Sussex last. Time 3 minutes 6 1/5 secs.

RESULT

Following is the result of the St. Leger—

- (1) Hyperion 6/4
- (2) Felicitation 22/1
- (3) Scarlet Tiger 100/8

Fourteen horses ran: Hyperion winning by three lengths, and a neck separated second and third. Special place betting: King Salmon 2/1, others proportionate.—Reuter.

U.S. AMATEUR GOLF TITLE

Fischer Breaks Course Record

Cincinnati, Sept. 12. The qualifying rounds of the American amateur golf championship were completed to-day at the Kenwood Country Club, and an all-time record was broken thanks to a brilliant round of 69 by Johnny Fischer over the last eighteen holes.

Fischer led the field by a comfortable margin at the end of the qualifying stages.

His first round score was 72 and his 69 on the second venture gave him an aggregate for the 36 holes of 141, which is a new all-time qualifying round record, beating that of 142 established by Corkran in 1924.

Fischer played great golf to day, holding out some notable shots on the greens.—Reuter.

Pat Sawyer, of Minneapolis, later came in with an excellent card which placed him second to Fischer with an aggregate of 142. He did the first 36 holes in 70 and the second in 72.

Aggregates of 149 qualified for the match play stages and twelve competitors, with scores of 150 were required to play off for the last eight position.—Reuter.

FRENCH AIR MISSION

Cheered On Leaving Paris

Paris, Sept. 13. Hundreds of people, including the Soviet Air Attache, cheered as M. Pierre Cot, the Air Minister, waved farewell on his departure for Moscow by air at 3.40 p.m. yesterday.

The other two planes which are accompanying M. Cot, left Paris earlier, but all three will reach Moscow together.

The French visit comes about as the result of Russia's desire to seek new friends as a consequence of Hitler's anti-Communist regime, which has broken off Russo-German ties.

Russia especially desires French assistance, instead of German, in reorganising their civil and military aviation services.

Owing to the French alliance with the Little Entente, the French rapprochement with Russia should entail a more peaceful atmosphere in Eastern Europe.—Reuter.

EARLY IRISH ELECTION?

De Valera Losing Control

Dublin, Sept. 13. ANTICIPATING an early general election in the Irish Free State, General O'Duffy, Director-General of the Irish National Guard, will begin a month's organising campaign next week.

General O'Duffy's preparations are based on the belief that support given to President De Valera's Party by the eight members of the Labour Party, who hold the balance of power, is unstable, and that the President will be forced to dissolve the Dail.

The recent pay cuts have not increased Mr. De Valera's popularity with the Labour members, but earlier opinion was expressed that he would be able to keep a majority in the Dail if he avoided a definite breach with the party.—Reuter.

NEW PARTY APPEALS FOR FUNDS

"A big organization drive for a United Ireland is now being begun in every parish in the Free State," says an appeal for funds issued by the new United Ireland Party in Dublin yesterday.

The appeal adds "At any moment a General Election may give the people a chance to end their present condition of national calamity."—Reuter.

MR. NORMAN DAVIS BUSY

Disarmament Talks In London

London, Sept. 12. Since his talks on disarmament problems with the Foreign Secretary, Sir John Simon, last week, Mr. Norman Davis, the chief United States delegate to the Disarmament Conference, has been spending a golfing holiday in Kent. He is returning to London this week to discuss certain points with the President of the Conference, Mr. Arthur Henderson.—British Wireless.

A NOVEL CEREMONY

Chinese Wedding In London

London, Sept. 12. THE first Chinese wedding to take place in London, other than a Christian ceremony, was celebrated this afternoon at China House, Gower Street, the headquarters of Chinese students in England.

The bridegroom was Liu Tsai Wen, who hails from Kiangsu, and who is a graduate of the London School of Economics.

The bride, Miss Chang Hsu Ying, is from Kiangsu, and is an art student visiting London.

The distinguished Chinese painter, Peon Hsu, performed the ceremony and the best man was Lieutenant Wang Ko Tsan, who has just passed out from Sandhurst Military College.—Reuter.

TWO AIRMEN CRASH

One Pilot Killed

Moscow, Sept. 12. The two Polish airmen who left Warsaw yesterday in an attempt upon the world's long-distance flight record have crashed in Soviet territory.

Captain Lewoniewski died of the injuries he received.

It is understood that Colonel Filipowicz, who is the Polish Director of Civil Aviation, was also badly hurt.—Reuter.

U.S. NOT YET BACK TO PROSPERITY

Growing Enmity Between Labour And Wealth

WEAKNESS OF BANKING STRUCTURE CONTINUES

London, September 13. The "Times" of Washington, which has hitherto been most sympathetic to the N.R.A., refers to the convert to the opposition of big business, the open growing enmity between labour and wealth, spreading resentment by rural and urban consumers as increased costs of production are offset by high retail prices, the continued weakness of the banking structure and declares, that so far the N.R.A. has not brought prosperity back to the United States.

LIBERAL SUPPLY OF FIXED CAPITAL NEEDED

There has been some increase in wages, shortening of working hours, also the hope that, sweatshop wages would be abolished, together with the grosser inequities of child labour, but what is infinitely more needed before winter is the growing recognition that what is needed is now liberal supplies of fixed capital, but nobody pretends to know where it is obtainable under the present law (under which promoters are liable to prosecution for misrepresentation) unless supplied by Government.

PLEA FOR RATIONAL INFLATION

New York, Sept. 13. An urgent plea for "rational inflation" has been received by Mr. Roosevelt from Mr. P. A. T. Harrison, Chairman of the Finance Committee of the Senate. Mr. Harrison said that "commodity prices must rise. I favour some form of rational inflation, as we have got to do more than we are doing. This will help both bankers and farmers; the latter are the ones who really need help now."

Mr. Harrison's suggestion to the President is believed significant in view of the recent relapse of business activity and commodity prices. Meanwhile, the critical state of Mr. Roosevelt's prosperity drive is indicated by the poor response on the part of consumers to General Johnson's strenuous "Buy Now" campaign. The increase in wage levels have been insufficient to offset the rise in prices and farmers are complaining the return for their products is lagging far behind the cost of manufactured goods. Many observers think Mr. Roosevelt will be forced to outright inflation in order to pump purchasing power into the public purse.—Reuter.

GOLD RESTRICTIONS

Washington, Sept. 13. The gold regulations have been further modified, permission being granted to licensed manufacturers to buy scrap gold such as trinkets, jewellery, and teeth fillings previously only marketable to the mints.

STOCK MARKET STEADY

Kaffirs Show Best Points

London, Sept. 12. THE stock markets generally left off with a cheerful tone. Kaffirs closed at about the best points of the day on continental buying. British funds finished steady with War loan 3 1/2 per cent. at 100 5/16.

Oils, rubbers and home rails were firm, but German bonds inclined earlier. International showed appreciable gains.—British Wireless.

BRITISH TREASURY RETURNS

London, Sept. 12. THE latest Treasury returns show that the ordinary revenue for the current financial year up to September 9 amounted to £250,428,045. At the corresponding date of last year the amount stood at £243,634,287.

The ordinary expenditure to date for the current year totalled £225,085,006 which is nearly £22 millions less than the total ordinary expenditure at the corresponding date of last year.—British Wireless.

FARMERS WANT INFLATION

Columbia, S. Carolina, September 13. Immediate currency expansion, the abolition of the processing tax on cotton, and other emergency steps in the United States, were yesterday advocated by agricultural leaders at a mass meeting of farmers.

The meeting urged the Federal Administration to immediately fix the minimum price for cotton at 15 cents per pound.

The farmers endorsed the plan to reduce next year's cotton acreage by 37.5 per cent. as suggested by the United States Secretary of Agriculture, Mr. Henry C. Wallace, although they consider the reduction should be applied on the bale and not on the acreage basis.—Reuter.

DISPOSAL OF WHEAT

Washington, Sept. 13. Plans for the disposal of over thirty million bushels of wheat stored on the Pacific and North-West, through export associations of which it is estimated China will take fifteen, Japan twelve million, and Ireland a possible six are tentatively announced by the Farm Adjustment Board, and is expected to be approved by Mr. Wallace.—Reuter.

The Pacific and North-West denotes the States from Washington to Oregon beyond the Rockies. It is the store-house of the so-called white wheat, the heavy stocks of which have long threatened price levels of the inland market.

The proposals are tantamount to a Government subsidy of from 15 to 20 cents per bushel to enable holders to export at current world prices.

A GREAT SUCCESS

Fox Films Inc. and the management of the King's Theatre have achieved what hitherto was thought well-nigh impossible. They managed to break through the reserve of the Hong Kong audience at the premiere of that wonder film, "Cavalcade" last night, for the audience, happy in the thought that they were about to witness one of the greatest films ever produced, forgot themselves and sang all the old favourites that the band of the South Wales Borderers so ably played.

"Cavalcade" proved to be a really super-production and bookings are sure to be very heavy when it comes on for a long run on the 20th inst.

VICTIM OF PERSECUTION

German Jew Ends His Life

Berne, Sept. 13. DESPAIR, caused by bad health and "the racial persecution" which drove him into exile, has ended the life of the prominent German Jewish criminal lawyer, Professor Max Alsbarg, who committed suicide at Baden yesterday.

Professor Alsbarg, who was fifty-six, acted as counsel for the defence in some of the most important trials in Germany since the war. He was also the author of two plays. After the Nazis' accession to power in Germany, he was forbidden to practice.—Reuter.

CANTON-K'LOON RAILWAY

Chinese Suggestions Regarding Profits

(From Our Special Correspondent)

Canton, Sept. 13. PROFITS from the Canton-Kowloon Railway should be apportioned on the basis of mileage in each section. This is the main theme of the revision proposals which Mr. Hu Chi Hsien (Woo Kai Yin), committee member of the Kwangtung Provincial Government, will take up with the British section in Kowloon.

The committee of five in charge of forming proposals for the revision of the Canton-Kowloon Railway agreement has made public their overtures to be submitted to the British section as a basis of negotiations. Members of this committee are Messrs. Chien Shu Fan, well-known local lawyer, Hu Chi Hsien, Hu Tung Chao, manager of the Chinese section, Li Luk Chao, committee member of the Provincial Government, and Lee Chuck Po, traffic manager of the Canton section.

BRITISH SHARE 20 PER CENT.

According to the Chinese proposals, the railway is 110.97 miles long, of which 88.73 miles are in the Chinese section and 22.24 are in the British section. In other words, the Kowloon portion is about 20 per cent. of the mileage and should receive an equal percentage of profits. By virtue of the present contract, the Kowloon share is 35 per cent., and the new proposals deem that such division is unfair and call for reduction to the percentage in accordance with mileage, i.e. about 20 per cent.

Pointing out the vast difference in income between the present system and the proposed change, the Chinese proposals say: "From 1911 to 1932, the total income of the railway was $10,479,000. The Chinese section received $8,811,100, while the British section had $3,667,900. However, if the income were based on mileage, the Chinese section should have $3,799,000 and the Kowloon line should get $2,100,000."

"The British section contends that it is entitled to greater percentage other than based on mileage, because they expended large sums of money for boring several tunnels in the New Territories. Nevertheless, the difference between what they had already received and what they should obtain from a mileage estimation is enough to pay for more than a half of the cash spent on constructing the tunnels."

The proposals suggest that by revising the present agreement and further improvements the railway will compete with the river steamers not only in passengers but freight traffic and will bring in more profit.

At present the Chinese section is indebted to the British section to the amount of £150,000 on loans and purchases. No interest or capital has been paid for the past several years, owing to the disruption of the service by political turmoils in Canton.

CENSORSHIP OF NEWS

Canton Newspapers Up In Arms

(From Our Special Correspondent)

Canton, Sept. 13. FINDING fault with the News papers Censorship Bureau, the Kwangtung Provincial Kuomintang petitioned to the South-west Executive Committee to permit representatives from the Provincial Kuomintang to take part in the censorship work, as the Bureau is not functioning efficiently.

This petition was flatly rejected by the South-west Executive Committee which informed the Provincial Kuomintang to-day that only the Committee itself, the First Group Army and the Bureau of Public Safety are engaged in the censorship of local newspapers.

The Provincial Kuomintang wants to take part in the censorship of newspapers, because it declares that the censors do not know what to pass over or what to take out. This has resulted in the complaint of privately owned papers that the three government dailies are given more "freedom" of publishing delicate news.

For instance, the "Telegraph" of general Chen (Tao) Tung, "Chung Yeh" and "Tung Yeh" (Kai) "Kwang" was published at first only by the Man Kwok Yeh, while the other commercial papers were prohibited from publishing it until

KWANGTUNG SILK INDUSTRY

Scheme To Improve Exports

(From Our Special Correspondent)

Canton, Sept. 13. KWANGTUNG silk will have a better market in the United States, if it is directly handled between seller and buyer instead of passing through several agents or middle-men, stated a letter received to-day by the Silk Improvement Bureau from a Chinese official investigating this industry in New York.

After inspecting Japanese and Chinese silk, this official stated that those from his own country are decidedly of better quality but need mechanical improvement before they can compete successfully with Japanese products.

As a result of discussion with American silk importers, this official is advised that to push Chinese silk trade speedily, silk bureaus should be established at Shanghai, New York and Lyon. From these three centres, silk can be shipped to the leading importing countries in Europe and America.

U.S. WHEAT AND COTTON LOAN

Provinces Appeal For Share

Nanking, Sept. 13. Following an appeal from Kweichow Provincial Government for $5,000,000 from the proceeds of the American Wheat and Cotton Loan, further telegrams have been received from the provinces claiming a portion of the loan for provincial projects.

A telegram from the North-Western Provinces suggests that $100,000,000 from the loan be apportioned for the completion of the Lunghai Railway in order to link these provinces with Central China. Reuter.

the next day. This was due to a misunderstanding on the part of the censors.

The present censorship is very strict. Any statement of political changes in Canton is tabooed. Two English-speaking censors are in charge of going over English language dailies.

A THOUSAND STERLING EACH!

Ex-Captives Strike A Bargain

(From Our Special Correspondent)

Shanghai, Sept. 13. THIN, brown and still nervous from their ordeal in captivity, Blue, Johnson and Hargrave arrived at Shanghai this evening. They were warmly greeted by friends and officials of Messrs. Butterfield and Swire.

The ex-captives still refuse to give interviews as it is understood they have sold their exclusive story to the "Daily Mail" for £1,000 each.

They will probably stay in Shanghai a few days after which it is expected, they will leave for England, though their leave is not yet due.—Reuter.

FINANCE IN N. CHINA

Being Carefully Considered

Shanghai, Sept. 13. Dr. H. H. Kung had a meeting this morning with General Huang Fu, when the financial situation in North China was discussed.

It is understood that a definite arrangement was made that in future all Government revenue in North China will be handed to the Government. If the local revenue in the North is insufficient to meet expenses, the Government should give full financial assistance.

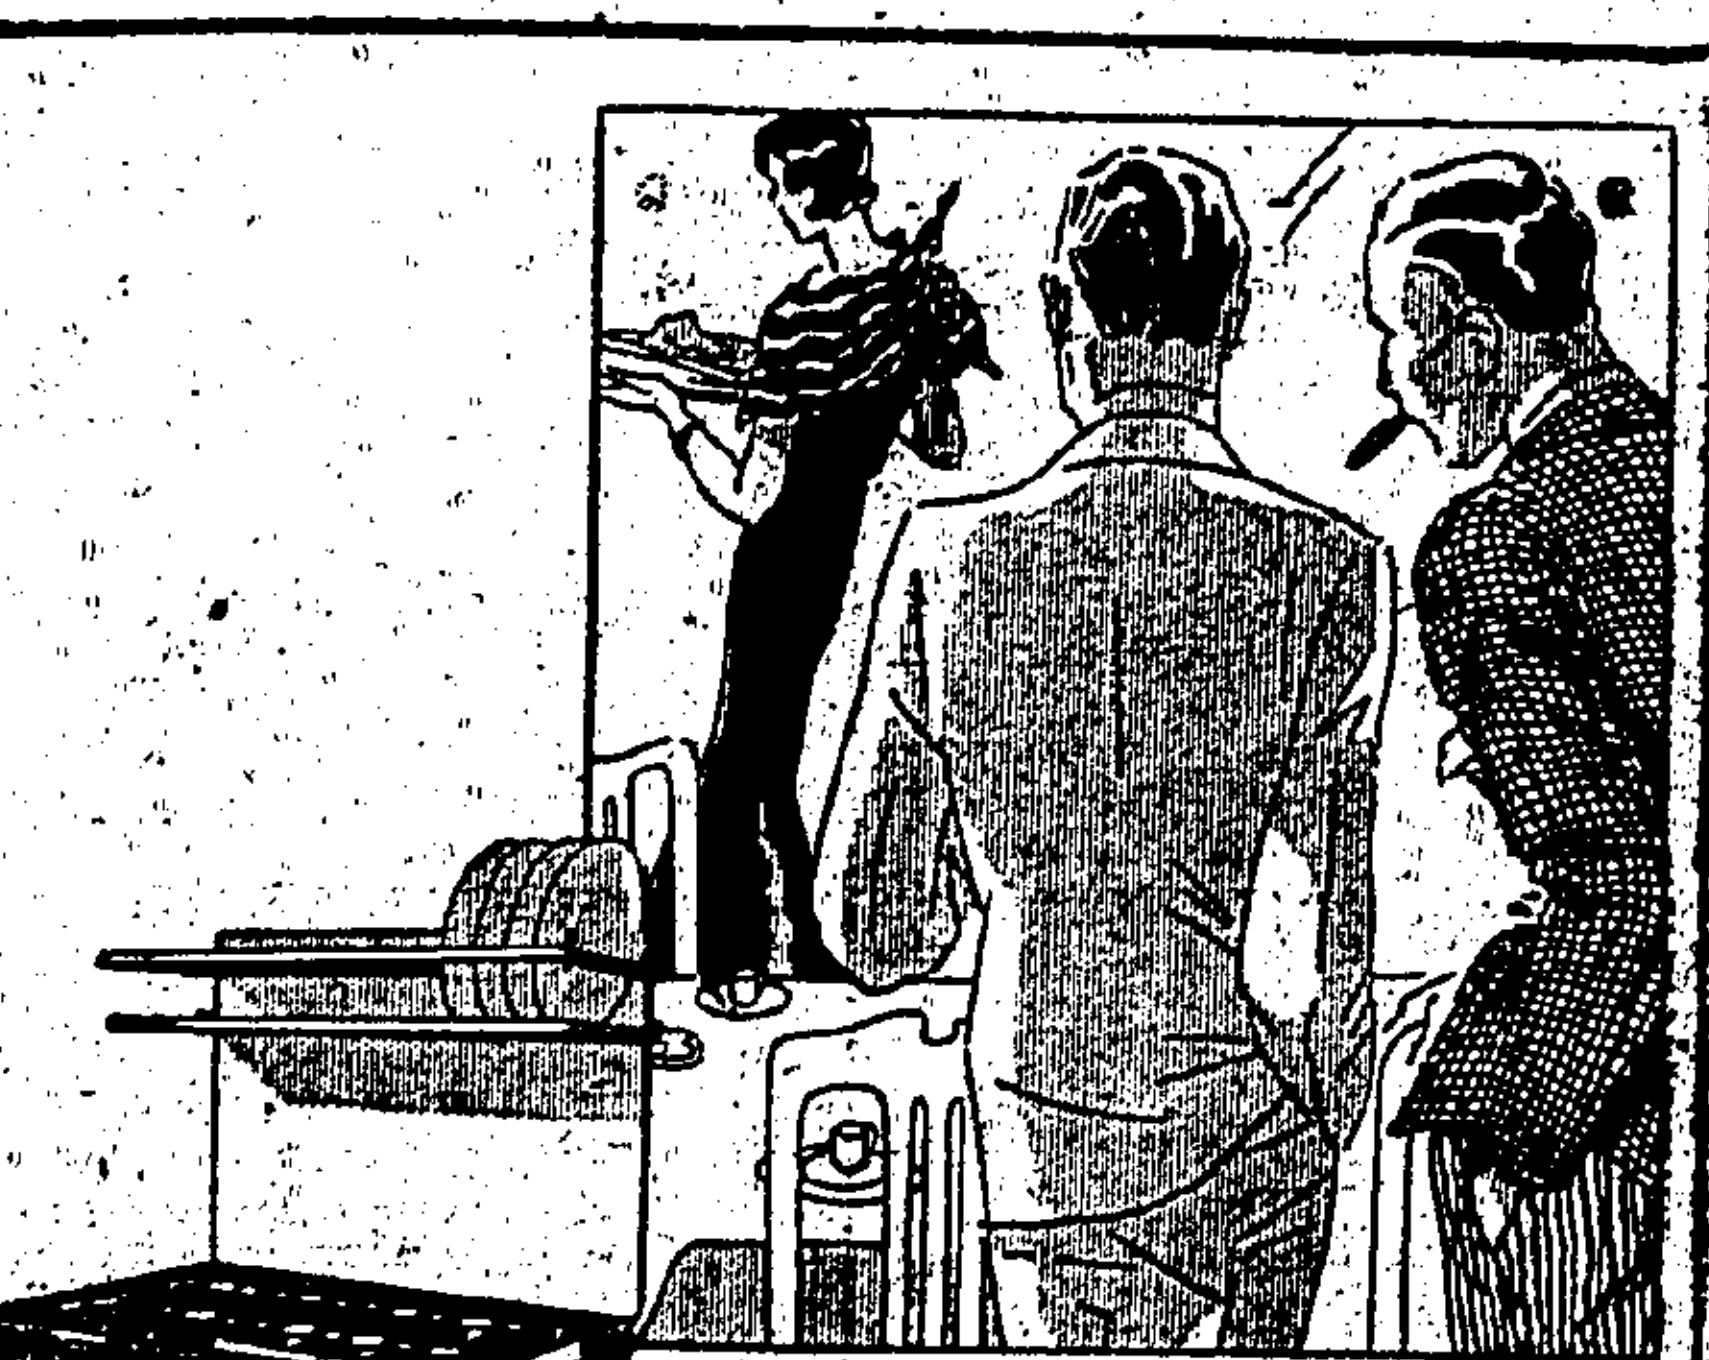

The matter is now under careful consideration by the Ministry of Finance. General Huang Fu is returning to Peiping in a day or two.—Reuter.

MR. ARIYOSHI VISITS NANKING

Shanghai, Sept. 13. The Japanese Minister to China, Mr. Ariyoshi, is leaving for Nanking this evening.

It is understood that the object of Mr. Ariyoshi's visit to Nanking is to make an official call on Mr. Wang Ching-wei.

This will be the first meeting between the Japanese Minister and Mr. Wang since the latter took over the Foreign Ministry.—Reuter.

Here's the "New World" Gas Cooker. It's built in. It's hard. It's fireproof. It's safe. It's credit to any kitchen. You can have them in beautiful bright colours with chrome-plated fittings. It's yours.

Is there a greater thrill than for you to overhear such a whisper? But when you have a "Regulo" "New World" "Regulo"-controlled Gas Cooker you will know that all your cooking is certain to be perfect.

Because the "Regulo" oven-heat control keeps the heat steadily at the right point for the cooking—neither too hot nor too cool—and there's no need to open the oven door until you turn out the food, done to perfection.

See these amazing new Gas Cookers in our showrooms to-day.

HOME FOOTBALL NEWS AND FORECASTS

AIR-MAIL REPORTS OF
OPENING MATCHESSELECTIONS FOR THIS WEEK'S FIXTURES

This week we are giving detailed reports of the opening matches of the Home Football season which have just come to hand by Air-Mail. A good idea of the form shown by the teams engaged on that day may be gleaned from the reports, and together with a short review of the form shown subsequently by the different teams, I feel that readers will be able to make their selections for this week.

The league tables, brought up-to-date, together with a probable list of winners for this Saturday's matches will be found below.

ARSENAL HELD AT HIGHBURY

Attack, Disorganised
by Loss of JamesSOUND BIRMINGHAM
BACKS

(Special Air-Mail Service)

LONDON, Aug. 25.

THE result of Arsenal's opening match, a draw against Birmingham, gives rise to speculation concerning their future—has their day passed? But apart from fact that one game in cricket evidence, it is difficult to judge the champions because of an injury to James.

The Arsenal's captain and scheming forward had to leave the field with an injured ankle twenty minutes from start, and the four remaining Arsenal forwards were at sixes and sevens for a time.

But even a full-strength Arsenal have even found difficulty in beating a downright, thorough team, whose first purpose is to put the opposing machine out of gear. That is what Birmingham did, and due credit must be given them for it.

Contrast in Styles.
Birmingham could not match the home team for artistry, but they were more than a match in energy, determination, and grimness of purpose. To beat down this most efficient Birmingham defence an attack will have to use force as well as subtlety.

It was a most interesting game for the 50,000 spectators, with a marked contrast in style. Birmingham's new forward, McGurk, soon sent across a centre from which Bradford scored, and twice the ball was sent against Arsenal's crossbar. So the bad luck did not all go one way.

During the second half, when the Arsenal players remembered that they have won matches previously in spite of handicaps, Jack headed a neat goal. He became the player we like to see, but the star performer, the man constantly threatening to win the game, was the outside-right, Hulme.

What pace! In a last great effort Hulme was hurt and to be carried off. The loss of a point is much less serious to Arsenal than the loss of two forwards in the opening match.

EVERTON'S NARROW WIN

Pearson's Fine Goal-Keeping
For West Bromwich

EVERTON ... 1 WEST BROMWICH A. 0
Due to doubt to the heat, which was so intense that the referee, Mr. W. Walden, of Nottinghamshire, took off his blazer, the game at Goodison Park was not the classical one it was expected to be. There was some good football, mostly by Everton, but on the whole the play was not in keeping with the reputations of the sides.

Though they won only by a goal to nil, Everton were better than their opponents in every department except goal. Here Pearson, the Albion keeper, proved himself a master, and but for him the margin in Everton's favour would have been much greater. At times the game resolved itself into a match between the Everton attack and Pearson, and except for one occasion in the first half the West Bromwich man held his own.

The exception was at the thirty-second minute, when Stein sent a good pass from Dunn over to Dean, and the centre-forward cleverly headed the ball past Pearson.

Dependable Half-backs.
Everton's display on the whole was satisfactory. All departments worked well, and every man had a share in the victory. The defence at Goodison was so good that Sagar was not a quarter of the work at his rival, while White and his wing halves were dependable.

First Division

Arsenal.—Last year champions surprisingly drew with the cup-finalists last week. Playing the Hotspurs on the latter's ground this week will they be able to uphold their undefeated record. The odds are in favour of the "spurs" and an excellent game is expected.

Aston Villa will be playing on Chelsea's ground and should take full points.

Birmingham, who had their first impressive victory over Middlesboro, ought to have little difficulty in taking full points against Blackburn.

Derby have already drawn twice and the chances are that they will share the points with Leeds. U., but it will be no surprise if they emerged winners.

Everton will have a very difficult task against Manchester C. who did very well to hold last year's champion to a draw last week. The game ought to be very evenly contested.

Huddersfield ought to win against Stoke but a draw is not unlikely. Leicester City will be playing Liverpool on the latter's ground and by virtue of playing at home, Liverpool ought to win.

Sheffield U. ought to account for Middlesboro who beat Everton by the odd goal in five last week.

Newcastle, in their away match against West Bromwich ought to be able to hold to a draw.

Portsmouth lost to Stoke last week but they ought to take full points against Wolves.

Sunderland, after defeating

Wales last week by the margin of 6-1, ought to have an easy victory against Sheffield U.

Third Div. (North)

Chesterfield should beat Rochdale on their own ground.

Crewe should account for Halifax on their own ground.

Darlington has not won a game yet, but ought to register their first win against Mansfield, who have also failed to win so far this year.

Doncaster will find York City a hard nut and by virtue of playing on their ground York should win.

Hartlepool will meet Southport who have no win to their credit but a good record for drawn matches. On their ground they should hold Hartlepool to a draw.

Accrington will be at home against Tranmere but so far the latter still holds undefeated record and ought to do the trick.

Barnsley is also undefeated and should collect full points against Gateshead on the latter's ground.

Barrow, of the Royal blue and white knickers colours will play Walsall on the latter's ground and the game ought to be very even. By the virtue of playing at home Walsall should win.

Rotherham has not won a game yet but they should register their first win against Carlisle.

Chester (Blue and White vertical stripes and black knickers) will have to go all out even for a draw against Wrexham at the latter's ground.

New Brighton playing Carlisle away won by odd goal last week, playing at home against Stockport should be successful again.

Scottish League

Ayr Utd. ought to win against Rangers, though possibly there may be a draw.

Airdrie.—After a victory over Falkirk last week they ought to give Hearts a good game on their own ground.

Celtic held Rangers to a draw last week and ought to collect full points against Hamilton on their own ground, although they have as yet no win to their credit.

Cowdenbeath held St. Johnstone to a draw last week and should beat Queen O.S. by virtue of playing on their own ground.

Dundee will meet Queen's Park, probably the champion of the league, who have not lost a game out of six played. The odds are in favour of Queen's Park.

Hibernian held Hearts to a draw although on the latter's ground. Will they be able to win against Clyde who drew against Patrick? The odds are on Hibernians.

Motherwell ought to collect full points against Aberdeen.

Patric should be able to beat St. Johnstone.

St. Mirren so far have not won, they may do so this week against Falkirk.

Third Lanark will find Kilmarnock a hard nut although they are playing at home. They will have to play their very best to avoid defeat.

Gallops In The Slush

SLOW TIMES ON HEAVY GOING: AUSTRALIAN PONY DESTROYED

(By "MORNING DEW")

Despite the heavy rain at 5.30 a.m. yesterday, there was a large gathering at Happy Valley to see the training gallops. The rain held off between 6 and 7.30 and all the ponies were taken over their work, but conditions underfoot were not conducive to fast work. Mayflower did one of the most surprising gallops of the morning and others which impressed were Bistre, Warrington, Gay Butterfly, Burgomaster and Blue Star.

Owing to the slippery condition of the road, an Australian pony, one of the new batch, slipped on his way from the stables to the course, and injured himself so badly that he had to be destroyed. The pony, it is learned, broke loose from the Mafo and in running away slipped and was injured internally. He was bleeding profusely from the mouth and after examination by the "vet" was killed. The pony was a chestnut (No. 14) drawn by Messrs. Lewis and Tinson.

The times "clocked" yesterday were as follows:—

ALLEGED INDECENT
ASSAULT

COURT CLEARED FOR WOMEN'S EVIDENCE.

The court was cleared by Mr. Schofield's orders when a case was heard in which a dock hand was charged with indecent assault on a married woman.

Detective Sergeant Fitches said that the complainant was the wife of a street coolie, and with her husband occupied a bed space on the ground floor of No. 4, Electric Street. The defendant and his wife occupied an adjacent bed space.

On the morning of August 3 about 4 o'clock the complainant's husband left to find a job, his wife not being aware that he had gone. Some time later it was alleged defendant got into her bed. She "consented" to subsequent incidents, not realising that it was not her husband, until she spoke, and received no reply. She then raised the alarm and later reported the incident to the police. The defendant absconded, and was not arrested till September 5.

The hearing was adjourned until this afternoon.

Title

New York, Sept. 13.

BARNEY Ross retained the world's lightweight boxing championship at the Polo Grounds here last night when he again out-pointed Tony Canzoneri, the American-Italian, over 15 rounds.

Ross won the title from Canzoneri, holder of three titles, two months ago in New York. The first few rounds of the fight were even.

Then Ross, spurred on by his mother screaming at the ringside, hounded Canzoneri to the ropes and backed him round the ring.

The eighth ninth and fifteenth rounds were fought at a whirlwind pace each of the contestants striving for a knock-out. In the fourteenth round Ross shook Canzoneri with a cannon-ball left to the heart, causing Canzoneri to wince visibly.

Ross, who packed dynamite blows, forced the fight, and won in a canter.

Canzoneri lost three rounds, it is alleged, by low blows. Ross was the cleaner hitter, and wrought tremendous punishment with lightning left hooks to the body.

Though Canzoneri fought gamely, he was not the Tony of old, but he tried hard to convince the judges that he was not slitting down the ladder. He danced coolly round his opponent, taunting him with a venomous attack.

The majority of the ringsiders, despite the usual differences of opinion, agreed that Ross was an easy winner.

Kid Berg, the British contender who has twice been beaten by Canzoneri, was introduced from the ring. He is to meet Ross in his next fight.—Reuter.

The Philadelphia v. Chicago match was postponed through rain.

"THE GREAT JASPER"

W. Handemann and Robert Taske. The action starts in a small town along the eastern seaboard. The time is 1905, and Jasper is driving a horse car for the last time. Tomorrow the horse will be placed by the new electric trolley.

This change brings about a strike which Jasper, through Jasper's courage, settles. Promotion follows and with it Jasper's greatest heart conquest—Norma McGowd, beautiful young wife of the old man who is his benefactor.

Vera, Engels, young and beautiful German actress, recently imported by Radio, plays Mrs. McGowd. Edith May Oliver portrays an amiable fortune teller, Florence Fiddie, and Jasper's wife while the two sons are enacted by Bruce Cabot and James Bush.

"LIFE AFTER DEATH"

Mr. Hodson's Lecture
at "Helena May"

"Clairvoyant Research And The Life After Death" formed the subject of Mr. Geoffrey Hodson's lecture at the Helena May Institute yesterday, delivered before a large and deeply interested audience.

As an introduction to his discourse Mr. Hodson told his hearers that when he turned over his thoughts to the study of life after death he entered into a world of human sorrow, bereavement and loss. We desired to know what has happened to our head and what awaits us when our time comes. A study of the subject showed that there was life beyond the grave, and that the real man is not the person who died.

As to how such a statement could be made as to how a human being could know of these things that was a subject for another branch of study. He regretted that he had not the time at his disposal to go into that. It needed a very lengthy explanation and he asked his audience to take as a hypothesis that there was a power resident in each one of us, and by the exercise of this faculty it was possible for the bonds of this world to be pierced. By exercise of super-normal culture, one could enter the psychical world, thence to the super-psychical, and finally into another and another, till power after power is unfolded. He asked his audience to take all this for granted.

Immortality

Going on, Mr. Hodson said that Immortality man is immortal. He described the evolution of man and how his thirst for knowledge made him come to earth to live his span. If he was a man of sunny disposition on earth, his temperament would be similar after death and vice versa, and finally, his last stage, when he would be experiencing a condition of Paradise, would be perfectly happy, with all desire laid aside.

When a man died, senses and sensations gradually left him and as the ultimate moment arrived he himself, the real man left the body, and one could see him floating above the body, connected by what is called technically the "silver cord." He is then transported to the new world, and the new situation is gradually explained to him by "helpers" and how he finally settles down to his new circumstances.

Death and After

In showing how the human being leaves the "body" Mr. Hodson said that at that time it was very sensitive and he asked people to control their natural grief at the moment as noise would disturb the transition. He said that in the new world everything was just as in this. A scientist would find scope for the continuation of his studies and very often some discovery made by living scientists had been flashed to them by those in the other world. An artist would have his branch of art to look to and so would the others. A business man at first would also continue business, but he would soon find that there was no necessity for that. Food and clothes would not have to be worked for.

The various differences in the transitions according to the manner of the death was also touched upon by Mr. Hodson. Most of them were easy but the suicide would have a very bad time of it. However good the reason might be Mr. Hodson maintained that suicide was a mistake. Most everything came to an end, but that was most certainly not the case; so defective is the region that the average man is taught.

In conclusion, Mr. Hodson said: I assure you I look forward myself with keen anticipation for the time of death for I consider that only then would I have achieved my end.

CINEMA THEATRES IN KOWLOON

"The Star," And The Latest Houses Doing Well

(By OUR SPECIAL CORRESPONDENCE)

I was having a chat with some Kowloon friends about the theatres in the peninsula and because a Hong Kong resident who happened to be in the party said, most truly, that there was not a decent cinema theatre in the whole of Kowloon, or the New Territories, the conversation changed into an argument which eventually turned out to one of the most long-drawn-out affairs I ever had the misfortune to tolerate.

Personally, I totally disagree with the rash statement made by my Hong Kong friend for I am of the opinion that the cinemas in Kowloon are just as good, if not better, than those in Hong Kong. Let us take them one by one and describe each theatre briefly.

The first must be the Star Theatre, Kowloon's old stand by. True, this theatre is not installed with the cooling system, but what difference does that make? The Star Theatre is situated in a very convenient and easily accessible district and whether it is winter or summer, the crowds always like to see their favourite films fans in the comfortable seats in all parts of the house. Another thing the "Star" is well-known for, and that is whenever a touring company visits us, they are almost certain to book the "Star" for a few nights, and it has long since been taken for granted that such companies must make an appearance in this theatre, for the convenience of that community known as the high and mighty Kowloonites!

But to return to the subject of theatres themselves, the Majestic Theatre along Nathan Road has grown to be a favourite with "young Kowloon." Like the Star Theatre, this house is not one of the "ice-boxes," but it is constructed in such a way that the warm weather has little or no effect on the audience. For those living further in Kowloon, this theatre is perhaps the easiest one to get to, but even for Hong Kong residents, the Majestic is not too out-of-the-way, as the buses from the ferry stop practically at the door.

Then we have the Prince's Theatre, but this is more for the Chinese community though quite a number of Europeans patronise it fairly regularly. The Po Hing Theatre is essentially for Chinese plays although now and again it is lent to amateurs who stage plays and concerts for raising funds for charity.

One theatre that will make a decided change in Kowloon cinema life will be the Alhambra when it is completed. I am rather at a loss to understand why this theatre has taken such a long time to finish, for as far as I can remember, work on it has gone on for quite a couple of years.

Taking all the Chinese theatres (native plays and cinemas) in the bargain, Kowloon is much better off than Hong Kong in this particular phase of life so that it can be seen at once that the statement about there being no good cinemas in the peninsula is decidedly rash and unfair.

THE CHICAGO FAIR

Film View At Central Theatre

Pathe Special News "Century Of Progress Exposition At Chicago". Showing to-day at the Central Theatre is something which will be of interest to every Hong Kong movie patron, old and young of every nationality. This is the really fine Pathe News Special covering the entire Century of Progress World's Fair at Chicago—a $37,000,000 monument to the progress of the world throughout the last century.

Beginning with a thrilling air trip, right from the entrance to the Fair, modern magic meets the eye—and the world-famous Avenue of Flags is flanked by astounding sights. The great towers of the spectacular Sky-ride which rises 628 feet into the air carry between them rocket cars which convey sightseers across the lagoon for a bird's-eye view of the exposition. And back on the ground the camera takes one through every point of interest, each building and through the various street and villages which have been built by the countries which have representation here. The circular Electrical Group, the three 150-foot towers and dome of the Federal Building, the Great V-shaped Court of States, the latter set off by the sails of the 48 States of the Union, the wonderful Transport and Travel Buildings with its breathing dome, suspended by cables 125 feet in the air and the now famous Hall of Science are all shown. The 176 foot Carillon of the Hall of Science peals forth its music—this Hall being the centerpiece of the Exposition.

The quaint Belgian village, complete in every detail, with its native villagers dancing in the streets and the Old Heidelberg of Germany with its students drinking and singing, and then the bit of Paris, with its boulevards, cafes, and Apache dancers, the beauty show of France, showing modernistic styles that will cause many a gasp of astonishment from the audience (and a sigh of relief from dressmaking bills)—all this and more is in this picture.

The Golden Pavilion of Jehol is shown, where the treasures are displayed from ancient and modern China.

The progress of Transportation is shown from the ancient days of the ex-cart to the modern motor cars—many are the amusing contraptions that were once the pride and joy of their owners in days gone by.

Historic Fort Dearborn—the original Chicago is shown in its entirety—just as it stood in 1800. The wonderful Enchanted Island—the pleasure place for the children with its magic mountain and where make-believe comes true will thrill every juvenile heart in Hong Kong. Here are shown the Dragon Ride—the African Dip—Little Egypt—Log-Rollers of the Northwest Timber country—and a thousand and one others—even a midget village with its tiny folk and real human modern giants.

The Fair is shown at night with the wonderful display of flood lights on the fantastic and beautiful structures—and the film closed with a great display of night fireworks turning darkness into day and the fair into a fairland of mystic beauty. For those who cannot go to the Chicago Fair this film will be the best means of seeing the Century of Progress Exposition and being so timely—should not be passed up by any movie patron, or anyone interested in the progress of the world throughout the past 100 years. By all means see this twenty minutes of excellent entertainment.

LONDON FINANCE NOTES

Silver On The Downgrade

(Special Air-Mail Service)

London, August 23.

Sales and production of rayon are increasing in nearly every part of the world, and there is now a prospect of a higher price being realised for the product.

Dealers report that orders for yarn are now being booked for many months ahead and production for the first six months of the present year is greatly in excess of that of the corresponding period of last year. The estimated total for the half-year is approximately 263 million lb., of which about 70 million lb. represents the U.S.A. output.

Although British exports of rayon fabrics last month at 735,316 lb. were some 11,000 lb. below the exports for the same month last year the total for the seven months to date is some 60,000 lb. greater than for the first seven months of 1932 at 4,365,603 lb. Great Britain finds her best customers for rayon in the Empire itself. Out of a total of 19,660,000 square yards of cotton and rayon mixture exported during the first six months of the present year some 11,000,000 square yards was destined for Empire countries. The four biggest importers of British rayon are India, Australia, South Africa and Canada in the order named.

There has recently been an advance in the prices of acetate yarns in America ranging from 6 to 17 cents a pound and further increases in all types are expected in the near future.

Interest is at present centred upon the effects of the Code as applied to the rayon industry in the U.S.A. under the National Industrial Recovery Act. This will necessitate higher prices for the product in the U.S.A., and it is only a question of time as to when prices will be raised in this and other countries. In some quarters, October next is suggested as the month when a rise will probably take place but in others the advance is not expected until the end of the year.

Japanese Competition.

A matter which has been causing considerable anxiety to British exporters is the great advance made by Japan in both her rayon output and exports. Japan has now become the world's second largest producer—America being the first. During the first half of the present year her rayon production was over 40 million lb. as compared with about 28 million lb. for the first half of 1932.

Japanese competition is most severe in the Indian market. For the first quarter of the present year

India imported nearly 18 million yards of rayon fabric from Japan as against only 710,000 yards from Great Britain. The standard of living and the rate of wages in Japan are such that she can undersell every other country in the articles which she manufactures. Leaders of the rayon industry in this country have frequently called attention to the seriousness of this menace and the necessity of dealing with it.

Increasing Output.

Silver continues on a definitely downward course. The price since early July has sagged from 18 1/2 to 17 1/2 per ounce. Previous to that, in May of the present year, the metal had been as high as 20 1/2 per ounce, since which time it has been fluctuating more or less violently, but with a gradually declining trend. In its earlier stages the fall was partly attributable to the sharp depreciation in the dollar, but more recently it has persisted in the face of a substantial recovery in American currency.

The chief factor affecting the market has been the hope of international support for the metal, but that hope is now becoming more remote. Speculators who had bought for the rise are now closing their positions, and very little support is forthcoming from either India or China. The chief seller is America, where speculators bought heavily prior to and during the sitting of the late Economic Conference. An agreement was reached with regard to silver before the Conference dissolved, and although this fell far short of expectations, it stimulated at least the flagging interest of speculators and caused a sharp rally in the price.

Allegations In Singapore Case

MALAY SEAMEN CHARGED

Singapore, Sept. 7.

That for some time past, theft of cargo from the Duncester Castle totalling about £100 or £200 a month had been going on, was a statement made by the master of the vessel, Capt. A. M. Scobbie, in the Marine Court before Capt. Geoffrey Freyberg, the Master Attendant, when three Malay seamen of the ship, Ismail bin Rafni, Aziz bin Ismail and Kidam bin Datok Mudari, were charged with having on or about June 15 last at 9.30 p.m. on board the vessel, committed criminal breach of trust, in respect of certain property belonging to the ship.

The first and second accused pleaded guilty to the charge and were fined £3.10.0 each, in addition to four weeks' rigorous imprisonment. The third accused claimed trial.

It was stated by Capt. Scobbie that the men had been signed on in Singapore. The vessel was in New York harbour on June 15, and was to have sailed on the following day. For a week past cargo had been loaded on to the vessel, comprising shoes, shirts, cloth, soap, etc. for Manila. On the night of June 15 the Chief Officer brought the three accused to him, reporting that they had been caught stealing cargo. The men, when told of the charge against them, had admitted their guilt. The goods alleged to have been stolen were found near the quarters.

When the vessel arrived at Manila and the cargo was discharged, a claim totalling 67 pesos and 50 cents (about £7) for shortage of goods was made against them.

The Master Attendant, remarking that pilferage was a very serious offence both with regard to steamship and railway companies, passed sentence on the first two accused, who had pleaded guilty, as stated.

The case against the third accused was then proceeded with. Kidam, the third accused, denied all knowledge of the theft. He was sleeping at the time when the alleged theft took place.

The Master Attendant found the man not guilty and discharged him. In the opinion of the Court, the accused did not understand sufficiently the case stated to him on June 15 or 16. "The evidence is not sufficiently convincing to warrant a conviction," the Master Attendant said.
